

Hotel Rwanda (2004)

Viewing Guide: Exploring the Subjectivity of History

Before Viewing:

1. How are historical events typically represented in films and television shows? What forces are at work when screenwriters and directors are at work attempting to put historical events into film?

During Viewing:

2. Perspective: Whose perspective is this film told from? Why do you think Pauline was chosen as the primary catalyst for the story? What do we potentially miss because of this decision?
3. Cause: According to the film, what is the cause of the conflict? Does the film choose a "side"? If so, which one?
4. Response: How does the film depict the international response to the Rwandan genocide? Where is the blame/judgment placed? What persons, organizations, or countries are made out to be heroes, if any?

After Viewing:

5. Selective Memory and Historical Amnesia: If Hotel Rwanda was your only source of information on the Rwandan Genocide, how would that shape your thoughts and opinions?
6. Ethical Responsibilities in Historical Storytelling: What ethical considerations do the filmmakers face when telling a story such as this? Be specific to the events of Hotel Rwanda.

Reel Spirituality (Engaging Culture) Robert K. Johnston,2006-12-01 Increasingly thinking Christians are examining the influential role that movies play in our cultural dialogue Reel Spirituality successfully heightens readers sensitivity to the theological truths and statements about the human condition expressed through modern cinema This second edition cites 200 new movies and encourages readers to ponder movie themes that permeate our culture as well as motion pictures that have demonstrated power to shape our perceptions of everything from relationships and careers to good and evil Reel Spirituality is the perfect catalyst for dialogue and discipleship among moviegoers church based study groups and religious film and arts groups The second edition cites an additional 200 movies and includes new film photos The Art of Human Rights Romola Adeola,Michael Gyan Nyarko,Adebayo Okeowo,Frans Viljoen,2020-03-24 This book highlights the use of art in human rights specifically within Africa It advances an innovative pattern of thinking that explores the intersection between art and human rights law In recent years art has become an important tool for engagement on several human rights issues In view of its potency and yet potential to be a danger when misused this book seeks to articulate the use of arts in the human rights discourse in its different forms Chapters cover how music photography literature photojournalism soap opera commemorations sculpting and theatre can be used as an expression of human rights This book demonstrates how arts have become a formidable expression of thoughts and a means of articulating reality in a form that simplifies truth and congregates resolve to advance change Life in the Balance Leader's Guide Joni Eareckson Tada,2010-08-11 Never before has it been so important for Christians to discover the answers God s Word holds to our culture s biggest ethical and social dilemmas Every day the 24 hour news cycle offers stories from around the world of unimaginable physical mental and emotional suffering Yet more often than not these stories and the underlying problems they represent are reported with no suggestions for resolution Can it really be true that there are no solutions to our world s biggest crises Joni Eareckson Tada refuses to believe it On her TV show she has interviewed scores of people who have faced life s toughest battles and emerged victorious In Life in the Balance Joni and her friends take on some of the most difficult issues covered by the evening news such as street violence abortion autism genocide and stem cell research But they don t just tell the stories they dig deep into the Word of God to find real and lasting solutions to so called unsolvable problems This workbook designed for participants in a Life in the Balance individual and group study will guide readers to apply the timeless yet timely truth of God s Word to society s greatest challenges Listening to and Learning from Students Brian D. Schultz,2011-01-01 This book embraces the idea of listening to and learning from students Although many educational theorists have long argued that incorporating children's perspectives about teaching and curriculum has the potential for increasing students' interest and participation in learning. Their radical perspectives are still ignored or dismissed in theory and practice. Through featured essays, historical excerpts and provocative poetry, this collection provides research, literature and inquiry ideas that ought to be part of educational debates, policy discussions and decision makings. Articulated through thoughtful prose and discerning analysis, youth teachers and scholars featured in this collection illuminate the power and promise of not only listening to and learning from students but also acting upon the insights of students. This book calls for the 21st century educational workers: teachers, educators, parents, community workers, administrators and policy makers to perceive students as massive reservoirs of knowledge that invigorate possibilities for teaching, learning and curriculum in the contested educational landscape.

Gloria Edwards The Devil You Dance With Audrey McCluskey, 2010-10-01. South African film culture like so much of its public life has undergone a tremendous transformation during its first decade of democracy. Filmmakers once in exile, banned or severely restricted, have returned home; subjects once outlawed by the apparatus of apartheid are now fair game and a new crop of insurgent filmmakers are coming to the fore. This extraordinary volume presents twenty-five in depth interviews with established and emerging South African filmmakers collected and edited by Audrey Thomas McCluskey. The interviews capture the filmmakers' spirit, energy and ambition as they attempt to give birth to a film culture that reflects the heart and aspirations of their diverse and emergent nation. The collection includes a biographical profile of each filmmaker as well as an introductory essay by McCluskey pointing to the themes as well as creative differences and similarities among the filmmakers.

A Horrible Experience of Unbearable Length Roger Ebert, 2022-05-24. More of the Pulitzer Prize winning film critic's most scathing reviews. A Horrible Experience of Unbearable Length collects more than 200 of his reviews from 2006 to 2012 in which he gave movies two stars or fewer. Known for his fair minded and well written film reviews, Roger is at his razor sharp, humorous best when skewering bad movies. Consider this opener for the one star: Your Highness. Your Highness is a juvenile excrescence that feels like the work of 11 year old boys in love with dungeons, dragons, warrior women, pot, boobs and four letter words. That this is the work of David Gordon Green beggars the imagination. One of its heroes wears the penis of a minotaur on a string around his neck. I hate it when that happens. And finally the inspiration for the title of this book: the one star Transformers: Revenge of the Fallen Transformers Revenge of the Fallen is a horrible experience of unbearable length briefly punctuated by three or four amusing moments One of these involves a doglike robot humping the leg of the heroine If you want to save yourself the ticket price go into the kitchen cue up a male choir singing the music of hell and get a kid to start banging pots and pans together Then close your eyes and use your imagination Roger Ebert s I Hated Hated Hated This Movie and Your Movie Sucks which gathered some of his most scathing reviews were bestsellers This collection continues the tradition reviewing not only movies that were at the bottom of the barrel but also movies that he found underneath the barrel Movie buffs and humor lovers alike will relish this treasury of movies so bad that you may just want to see them for a good laugh Ways of Seeing Women's Leadership in Education: Stories, Images, Metaphors, Methods and Theories Kay Fuller,Pontso Moorosi,Victoria Showunmi,Saeeda J. A. Shah,2022-01-04
