

UNIT 1

Have students read their guide for the unit and learn new words that are unfamiliar to them. Have students add these words to the glossary. Words: Walt, along with definitions.

You may also want to assign these guides to a whole group in the classroom for the duration of this unit, allowing you and your students to revisit the guide orally and gauge progress toward achieving goals throughout the unit.

VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT

In your term paper in this unit, you should use new words. Students should use words in multiple contexts (read and literary terms, which are specific to the students' curriculum and language arts).

Adding new vocabulary knowledge is important for reading fluency. Students will encounter new vocabulary in this course in multiple ways.

- Academic Vocabulary
- Literary Terms
- Misconceptions in oral presentations (often glossed)
- Word Connections
- Oral Discussions

Encourage students to keep a Reader/Writer Notebook in which they record new words and their meanings. Encourage students to use words in multiple contexts to study and practice. Encourage students to use words in multiple contexts to study and practice. Encourage students to use words in multiple contexts to study and practice.

Use the Reader/Writer Notebook as the basis of the book for examples of specific responses students for word studies. As students become more familiar with using graphic organizers to explore the meaning of words, you may want them to create their own graphic organizers.
