Nischik, 2000 Novelist poet cultural critic Margaret Atwood is one of the most fascinating versatile and productive authors of our time a superb writer in any genre she chooses to tackle This book was prepared on the occasion of Atwood s sixtieth birthday in November 1999 Its first aim is therefore to take stock of Atwood s multifarious works and international impact at the height of her creative powers Secondly the book serves as a wide ranging introduction to the writer and her works Fifteen informative articles written specifically for this volume by Atwood specialists from Canada the USA the UK Germany and France treat her life and status her works up to date survey articles on Atwood s novels short fiction poetry and literary and cultural criticism and important approaches to her works from the standpoints of gender politics mythology ecology popular culture constructivism and Canadian nationalism A final section on creativity transmission and reception includes an interview with Atwood on creativity statements by some of Atwood s important transmitters including publishers editors literary agents and translators and some 15 statements by Atwood s fellow writers in which they explore her importance for them A number of photographs of Atwood several cartoons drawn by her an up to date bibliography of works by and about Atwood and an index round out the volume Reingard M Nischik is Professor of American literature at the University of Konstanz Germany Margaret Atwood and Social Justice Theodore F. Sheckels, 2022-11-25 Margaret Atwood and Social Justice eventually presents a loose ideology evident in the author s major works of prose fiction It insists however that Atwood is a writer not an ideologue and that therefore this ideology evolves over her career always secondary to her presenting stories and characters and through them ideas Throughout her career Atwood has been concerned about the social injustice experienced by women After expressing concern for the plight of the environment in Surfacing and workers in Life Before Man Atwood turned quite political in Bodily Harm and The Handmaid s Tale blending her concern for justice for women with criticism of present day Third World and future right wing governments Atwood then turned inward looking at how those denied justice often do the same to others and turned to history looking at injustice tied to social class She later brought many of her concerns together in The Blind Assassin and especially the three books that comprise the MaddAddam trilogy Later works such as The Heart

Goes Last Hag Seed and The Testaments add to the picture most fully articulated in The Blind Assassin which looks back at the 1930s and the MaddAddam books which look ahead to a future marked by global warming corporate oppression and pandemic As argued here these later books strengthen her indictment of corporations which oppress for the sake of profit and offer her most straightforward recognition that race plays a major role in whether social justice is served or not

Margaret Atwood's Aesthetics Dunja M. Mohr, Kirsten Sandrock, 2025-03-31 Perhaps more timely than ever Margaret Atwood's Aesthetics offers novel perspectives on both contemporary and canonical topics in Margaret Atwood's work with a special focus on the intersections of literature and politics Arguably one of the most political writers of our times Atwood's oeuvre subtly and overtly entangles readers in the dialectics of personal and political power asymmetries intrinsic to her aesthetic practices The collection takes its cue from the concept of the artpolitical as coined by Crispin Sartwell whose afterword addresses Atwood's aesthetic and imaginative material world construction and explores the interrelationship between literatures and aesthetic as well as political systems in Atwood's works Individual chapters of Margaret Atwood's Aesthetics contribute to increasingly burning questions concerning the relevance of literature today by drawing on a variety of critical perspectives including Anthropocene studies gender intersectionality the nonhuman and the posthuman Mikhail Bakhtin's carnivalesque risk studies nationhood intermediality and teaching Chapters offer fresh views on some of Atwood's most prominent works such as The Handmaid's Tale and The Testaments and their transmedial adaptations while other chapters focus on Atwood's latest publications as well as on under researched works including her graphic novels and her web serialized publications Margaret Atwood's Aesthetics provides unique insights into the aesthetic and political power of Atwood's oeuvre arguing that literary and media representations and cultural adaptation practices contain a significant transformative potential that reaches beyond the page

Margaret Atwood Shannon

Hengen,Ashley Thomson,2007-05-22 Authors Shannon Hengen and Ashley Thomson have assembled a reference guide that covers all of the works written by the acclaimed Canadian author Margaret Atwood since 1988 including her novels Cat's Eye The Robber Bride Alias Grace and the 2000 Booker Prize winner The Blind Assassin Rather than just including Atwood's books this guide includes all of Atwood's works including articles short stories letters and individual poetry Adaptations of Atwood's works are also included as are some of her more public quotations Secondary entries i.e interviews scholarly resources and reviews are first sorted by type and then arranged alphabetically by author to allow greater ease of navigation The individual chapters are organized chronologically with each subdivided into seven categories Atwood's Works Adaptations Quotations Interviews Scholarly Resources Reviews of Atwood's Works and Reviews of Adaptations of Atwood's Works The book also includes a chapter entitled Atwood on the Web as well as extensive author and subject indexes This new bibliography significantly enhances access to Atwood material a feature that will be welcomed by university public and school librarians Margaret Atwood A Reference Guide 1988 2005 will appeal not only to Atwood scholars but to students and fans of one of Canada's greatest writers Proceedings of the 4th International Conference on Language, Art and Cultural Exchange (ICLACE 2023) Bootheina Majoul,Guiyun Guan,Nick Groom,2023-08-28 This is an open access book The 4th International Conference on Language Art and Cultural Exchange ICLACE 2023 will be held on May 19 21 2023 in Hangzhou China Culture includes language which is a special cultural phenomenon For culture most scholars agree that it mainly includes two aspects material culture and spiritual culture Specific examples to show cultural phenomena will be of great benefit to our understanding Some examples of material culture are listed here Indian women wear saris Japanese like to eat sashimi and Chinese like to shake hands when meeting each other These are various manifestations of material culture in different nations Language is the mode of transmission of culture Language is one of the most important ways of thinking and cultural exchange of human beings which is actually the manifestation of the formation and transmission of culture Because of thinking human beings gradually create culture in the continuous social practice and then spread their national culture to each other in the continuous language exchange Since ancient times art and culture have been going hand in hand and complementing each other On the one hand art is an important connotation and component of culture and the progress of art is the driving force of cultural development On the other hand culture is the source and content of art and the prosperity of culture is the key to improve the level of art On the other hand culture is the source and content of art and the prosperity of culture is the key to improving the level of art Therefore whether it is culture or art it is not only a symbol of an era a representation of people's life style but also a guide to the direction of social development The relationship between language art and cultural communication is a hot topic for many scholars to study at present Therefore an academic conference is set up for authors to discuss related research issues and exchange new ideas hoping that scholars can burst out more excellent and valuable ideas in this conference ICLACE 2023 is to bring together innovative academics and industrial experts in the field of Literature Art and Cultural Exchange research to a common forum The primary goal of the conference is to provide a platform for scientists scholars and engineers from all over the world to present ongoing research activities fostering the research and business relations and promoting scientific information interchange and cooperation between all the participants Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson,2004-11-30

Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide True Crime and Women Lili Pâquet,Rosemary Williamson,2024-08-22

Bringing new research from true crime writers scholars and media practitioners around the world this book offers fresh perspectives on how women read write and are portrayed in true crime stories across different platforms including documentaries podcasts and TikToks The genre of true crime is flourishing and it is overwhelmingly consumed by women Despite this there is much we do not know about how women consume true crime and are represented in true crime stories of various kinds This edited volume helps to fill this gap in our knowledge Across ten chapters and using a variety of study methods including creative practice interviews surveys archival research and case studies the book reveals the multifaceted ways that true crime matters to women and suggests areas of future research It also offers new insights on a diverse range of topics such as racial identities fraudsters activism victimisation and deviance as well as highlighting major cases from past to present which have influenced criminal justice responses True Crime and Women is intended for researchers and students of criminology literary studies gender studies media and journalism studies and rhetorical studies as well as media practitioners and writers Margaret Atwood: Crime Fiction Writer Jackie Shead,2016-05-13 Exploring how Margaret Atwood s fiction reimagines the figure of the detective and the nature of crime Jackie Shead shows how the author radically reworks the crime fiction genre Shead focuses on Surfacing Bodily Harm Alias Grace The Blind Assassin Oryx and Crake and selected short fiction showing the ways in which Atwood s protagonists are confronted by their own collusion in hegemonic assumptions and thus are motivated to investigate and expose crimes of gender class and colonialism Shead begins with a discussion of how Atwood s treatment of crime fiction s generic elements particularly those of the whodunit clue puzzle and spy thriller departs from convention Through discussion of Atwood s metafictional strategies Shead also examines Atwood s techniques for activating her readers as investigators who are offered an educative process parallel to that experienced by some of the author s protagonists This book also marks a significant intervention in an ongoing debate among Atwood critics that pits the author s postmodernism against her ethical and humanistic concerns Neo-Victorianism and the Memory of Empire Elizabeth Ho,2012-04-19 Examining the global dimensions of Neo Victorianism this book explores how the appropriation of Victorian images in contemporary literature and culture has emerged as a critical response to the crises of decolonization and Imperial collapse Neo Victorianism and the Memory of Empire explores the phenomenon by reading a range of popular and literary Anglophone neo Victorian texts including Alan Moore's Graphic Novel From Hell works by Peter Carey and Margaret Atwood the films of Jackie Chan and contemporary Steampunk science fiction Through these readings Elizabeth Ho explores how constructions of popular memory and fictionalisations of the past reflect political and psychological engagements with our contemporary post Imperial circumstances The Rhetoric of Canadian Writing, 2021-11-22 The sixteen articles in The Rhetoric of Canadian Writing are a welcome contribution to the growing interest in Canadian culture indicating its variety Aboriginal Anglo Canadian and French Canadian culture and their interrelationships are all represented In classical oratory the term rhetoric signifies the art of influencing the thought and conduct of readers and listeners and this concept is used as an underlying current of debate in this volume Contributors address the theme of identity and post colonial disputation in their explorations of eighteenth and nineteenth century writing by Elizabeth Simcoe Catharine Parr Traill and Lucy Montgomery as well as contemporary works by Margaret Atwood Nancy Huston Wayne Johnston Susan Swan Jacques Poulin and Rudy Wiebe Quebecoise writer Louis Dupr contributes a compelling reflection on women's writing in Quebec The Palgrave Handbook of Neo-Victorianism Brenda Ayres, Sarah E. Maier, 2024-01-20 This handbook offers analysis of diverse genres and media of neo Victorianism including film and television adaptations of Victorian texts authors life stories graphic novels and contemporary fiction set in the nineteenth century Contextualized by Sarah E Maier and Brenda Ayres in a comprehensive introduction the collection describes current trends in neo Victorian scholarship of novels film theatre crime empire postcolonialism Gothic materiality religion and science amongst others A variety of scholars from around the world contribute to this volume by applying an assortment of theoretical approaches and interdisciplinary focus in their critique of a wide range of narratives from early neo Victorian texts such as A S Byatt's Possession 1963 and Jean Rhys Wide Sargasso Sea 1966 to recent steampunk from musical theatre to slumming and from The Alienist to queerness in their investigation of how this fiction reconstructs the past informed by and reinforcing the present Where Are the Voices Coming From?, 2021-10-18 This collection of essays focuses on Canadian history and its legacies as represented in novels and films in English and French produced in Canada mainly in the 1980s and 1990s The approach is both cross cultural and interdisciplinary aiming at articulating Canadian differences through a comparison of anglophone and francophone cultures illustrated by works treating some of the different groups which make up Canadian society English Canadian Qu'becois Acadian Native and ethnic minorities The emphasis is on the problematic representation of Canadianness which is closely bound up with constructions of history and its legacies dispossession criminality nomadism Gothicism the Maritime The English French language difference is emblematic of Canadian difference the two part arrangement with one section on Literature and the other on Film sets up the pattern of relationships between the two forms of cultural representation that these essays explore Essays in the Literature section are on single texts by such writers as

Margaret Atwood Tomson Highway Ann Marie MacDonald Anne Michaels and Alice Munro Gabrielle Roy Anne Herbert Antonine Maillet Bernard Assiniwi and Régine Robin The Film section with its mirror structure both supplements and amplifies this dialogue extending notions of Canadianness with its emphasis on voices from Quebec and Acadia traditionally omitted in Canadian history Filmmakers treated include Phillip Borsos Atom Egoyan Ted Kotcheff Mort Ransen and Vincent Ward Denys Arcand Gilles Carle Alanis Obomsawin Léa Pool and Jacques Savoie , The Fiction of Margaret Atwood
