Mohammad Alhawary,2018-05-04 The Routledge Handbook of Arabic Second Language Acquisition introduces major current approaches in Arabic second language acquisition SLA research and offers empirical findings on crucial aspects and issues to do with the learning of Arabic as a foreign language and Arabic SLA It brings together leading academics in the field to synthesize existing research and develops a new framework for analyzing important topics within Arabic SLA This handbook will be suitable as a reference work for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students and scholars actively researching in this area and is primarily relevant to sister disciplines within teacher training and Arabic applied linguistics The themes and findings should however also be attractive to other areas of study including theoretical linguistics psycholinguistics cognition and cognitive psychology

Networks of Privilege in the Middle East: The Politics of Economic Reform Revisited S. Heydemann, 2004-08-20 This volume explores the role of informal networks in the politics of Middle Eastern economic reform The editor's introduction demonstrates how network based models overcome limitations in existing approaches to the politics of economic reform The following chapters show how business state networks in Egypt Morocco Tunisia Syria Lebanon and Jordan have affected privatization programs and the reform of fiscal policies They help us understand patterns and variation in the organization and outcome of economic reform programs including the opportunities that economic reforms offered for reorganizing networks of economic privilege across the Middle East

Book Steven Berbeco, 2011-08-19 Abstract In this study I propose a strong and innovative model of teaching that centers on the student and I report on the efficacy of this model using quantitative research procedures This model of teaching is systematized in the Marhaba curriculum a method of teaching first year high school Arabic that I designed tested and evaluated The Marhaba curriculum is founded on best practices and is a natural outgrowth of contemporary education theories including non linear curriculum design and multiple modality teaching materials that take into consideration students diverse learning styles Analysis of data indicates that use of the Marhaba curriculum positively influences student proficiency in Arabic In particular students become proficient regardless of a student's gender grade socioeconomic status or parent educational background Also student proficiency is not dependent on a student's attitude to learning or engagement in class or a student's attitude toward the curriculum
