Storytelling in Participatory Arts with Young People Catherine Heinemeyer, 2020-06-30 This book draws on the author's experience as a storyteller drama practitioner and researcher to articulate an emerging dialogic approach to storytelling in participatory arts educational mental health youth theatre and youth work contexts It argues that oral storytelling offers a rich and much needed channel for intergenerational dialogue with young people The book keeps theory firmly tethered to practice Section 1 Storyknowing traces the history of oral storytelling practice with adolescents across diverse contexts and brings into clear focus the particular nature of the storytelling exchange and narrative knowledge Section 2 Telling Stories introduces readers to some of the key challenges and possibilities of dialogic storytelling by reflecting on stories from the author's own arts based practice research with adolescents illustrating these with young people's artistic responses to stories Finally section 3 Story Gaps conceptualises dialogic storytelling by exploring three different gaps the gap between storyteller and listener the gaps in the story and the gaps which storytellers can open up within institutions The book includes chapters taking a special focus on storytelling in schools and in mental health settings as well as guided reflections for readers to relate the issues raised to their own practice Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
