LifeRules Frank Fernino, 2014-06-19 Rules We live by them Hundreds of rules We were told some of them by our parents Don't touch the stove Say Thank you when someone gives you something Wash your hands before you eat Some rules we learn by ourselves I get crabby if I don't eat I get punished when I bite my sister It is easier to get what I want if I am quiet and polite But there are some rules that never occur us And if we were to learn and follow them our lives would be better We might have a better understanding of the world or we might have an easier time of things That is what this blog is all about To bring to your attention things that you might not have understood about yourself your behavior or your world Come along and I'll tell you some of the things that I've learned The Publishers Weekly, 2003

In a global used by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of immediate connection, the melodic beauty and emotional symphony developed by the prepared word usually fade in to the background, eclipsed by the relentless sound and interruptions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, located within the pages of All Clad Cookware Set Costco a stunning literary prize brimming with raw thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a masterful musician of language, that fascinating masterpiece conducts visitors on a mental trip, skillfully unraveling the concealed tunes and profound influence resonating within each carefully crafted phrase. Within the depths of the moving assessment, we shall explore the book is central harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing style, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
