and topics students encounter in the program have been carefully selected to expose them to rich and varied ideas and perspectives of cultural significance. These texts not only equip students with key ideas for participating knowledgeably in the important discussions of our time but also contain the complexity of expression necessary for developing college and career ready literacy skills.

Literacy Skills The program articulates and targets instruction and assessment on twenty CCSS aligned literacy skills ranging from making inferences to reflecting critically. Students focus on this set of twenty skills throughout the year and program continually applying them in new and more sophisticated ways.

Academic Habits The program articulates twelve academic habits for students to develop, apply, and extend as they progress through the sequence of instruction. Instructional notes allow teachers to introduce and discuss academic habits such as preparing and completing tasks that are essential to students' success in the classroom. The program materials include a comprehensive set of instructional sequences, teacher notes, handouts, assessments, rubrics, and graphic organizers designed to support students with a diversity of educational experiences and needs. The integrated assessment system centered around the literacy skills and academic habits allows for the coherent evaluation of student literacy development over the course of the year and vertically across all grade levels.

Teaching History with Film Alan S. Marcus, Scott Alan Metzger, Richard J. Paxton, Jeremy D. Stoddard, 2018-07-04

Teaching History with Film provides a fresh, engaging, and clear overview of teaching with film to effectively enhance social studies instruction. Using cases of experienced teachers to illustrate accomplished history teaching through movies, this text provides pre- and in-service teachers with ideas for implementing film-based lessons in their own classrooms and offers a deeper understanding of the thorny issues involved in using film to teach history. The second edition is completely revised and updated, including two entirely new case studies, a new chapter focusing on using international film, and incorporating a more global view in the classroom and additional material on using film to tackle difficult and controversial issues, as well as updates to all of the cases. Each section of the book focuses on how teachers can effectively support the development of students' historical film literacy through topics such as using film to develop interpretive skills to explore controversial issues and to develop historical empathy. By developing the skills students need to think critically about the past or what they think they know about history, the lessons in this book illustrate how to harness the pedagogical power of film to provide the tools necessary for rigorous inquiry and democratic citizenship. Special features include Reflection on the Case following each chapter, analyzing and discussing the strengths and limitations of the teacher's approach, as well as providing strategies for using and choosing films specific to the educational outcome. Sample unit outlines, descriptions of class texts and films, worksheets, essay questions, viewer guides, and exercises for the classroom throughout. Discussion of the practical considerations facing classroom teachers, including juggling time restraints, issues of parental permission, and meeting standards.
