Current Issues in Project Analysis for Development

John Weiss, David Potts, 2012-01-01 For over fifty years project analysis techniques have been applied in the assessment of development projects where poorly designed and appraised projects can waste scarce resources This study examines the continued relevance of this approach assesses methodological developments over this period and investigates current practical problems in the application of these techniques This major work brings together authors with experience of both academic and operational project work to focus on issues such as the shadow exchange rate the shadow wage the discount rate and assessment of poverty impact and risk as well as problems relating to specific sectors covering environmental projects transport education and health There are also general chapters on the experience of semi input output based estimation of shadow prices and the relevance of shadow pricing techniques to the context of developed economies in the EU An overview by the editors sets out the evolution of the literature and highlights current issues The general conclusion is that project analysis techniques remain relevant albeit within a very different development context to that in which they were originally envisaged to be applied With new perspectives on key economic parameters this book will appeal to academics working on development officials involved with project aid programmes postgraduate students of development and professional economists working on development projects

Economic Issues Today Robert B. Carson, Wade L.

Thomas, Jason Hecht, 2015-03-04 Written in non technical everyday language that is accessible to the undergraduate audience and requiring no background in economic analysis this acclaimed text provides a unique approach to understanding what the practice of economics is all about The authors address fourteen current economic issues covering both micro and macro economics and offer analyses and proposed solutions for each from Conservative Liberal and Radical perspectives This new edition incorporates critical changes in economic policy since the last edition that affect every issue covered in the text Tables have been updated throughout to include current economic data and an all new section on social policy frames the current debate about the Social Security system The book's unique approach stimulates critical thinking on everyday issues that traditional texts either ignore or present as settled debates It helps students to understand the dual role that ideology and logical empirical argumentation play in economics Issues are presented as stand alone subjects that can be read in any sequence and used to supplement a wide range of principles of economics texts An instructor's manual with a test bank and discussion questions is available to professors who adopt the text and Power Point downloads are available as teaching aids The text is also available in two separate volumes Microeconomics Today and Macroeconomics Today Department of Housing and Urban Development, and certain independent agencies appropriations for fiscal year 1979 United States. Idinopulos,Yonan,2018-08-14 This volume on Religion and Reductionism grew out of a conference convened in November 1990 where the participants were asked to respond to the conceptual and methodological problem of reductionism in the academic study of religion The conference focused on the writings of Robert A Segal and his defence of reductionism and criticism of Mircea Eliade s non reductive interpretation of religion At the Miami conference some of the most important and enduring questions were raised 1 What is religion 2 What is religion and or religious meaning 3 How should religion be studied and taught 4 What are the possibilities and limits of social scientific analyses of religious phenomena 5 What is reductionism 6 What is anti reductionism These and other questions on religion and reductionism are widespread and invite serious consideration they help to illuminate the basic issues that are at the core of any study of the world s major religions
