Frey, 2013-09-13 Modern Classroom Assessment offers an applied student centered guide to the major research based approaches to assessment in today's modern classroom Rather than simply list basic assessment formats with a few examples as many textbooks do award winning professor and scholar Bruce Frey's book fully explores all five key approaches for teacher designed assessment Traditional Paper and Pencil Performance Based Assessment Formative Assessment Universal Test Design and Authentic Assessment while making abstract concepts and guidelines clear with hundreds of real world illustrations and examples of what actual teachers do Offering a variety of engaging learning tools and realistic stories from the classroom this text will give any reader a strong foundation for designing modern assessments in their own classrooms Evaluation in Foreign Language Education in the Middle East and North Africa Sahbi Hidri, Christine Coombe, 2016-09-27 This book presents evaluation cases from the Middle East and North Africa MENA context investigating the various facets of evaluation in different parts of the MENA region and beyond In 19 chapters it explores cases from Tunisia Saudi Arabia Egypt Sudan Syria the UAE Turkey Iran and Morocco The book highlights the impact of evaluation on a range of stakeholders arguing that it has repercussions at the individual societal economic cultural and political levels that it also has an ethical dimension and that it is tailored to people's needs helping them to remain abreast of the effectiveness and efficiency of programs Further the book explores controversial issues concerning different evaluation themes such as teacher and staff evaluation assessment practices text genre analysis evaluation assessment of productive skills textbook and ICT evaluation evaluation of ELT certificates and programs quality assurance ESP needs analysis assessment literacy and dynamic assessment It addresses key challenges such as who the right people to implement evaluation are and the appropriate use of evaluation results to avoid any misuse or harm to any stakeholder In closing the book calls for further research venues on the relevance of evaluation testing and assessment in the MENA context and beyond Multimodal Literacies Across Digital Learning Contexts Maria Grazia Sindoni, Ilaria Moschini, 2021-11-29 This collection critically considers the question of how learning and teaching should be conceived understood and approached in light of the changing nature of learning scenarios and new pedagogies in this current age of multimodal digital texts practices and communities The book takes the concept of digital artifacts as being composed of multiple meaning making semiotic resources such as visuals music and design as its point of departure to explore how diverse communities interact with these tools and develop and explore their understanding of digital practices in learning contexts The first section of the volume examines different case studies in which involved participants learn to grapple with the introduction of digital tools for learning in children's early years of schooling The second section extends the focus to secondary and higher education settings as digital learning tools grow more complex as do students parents and teachers interactions with them and the subsequent need for new pedagogies to rethink these multimodal artifacts A final section reflects on the implications of new multimodal tools technologies and pedagogies for teachers such as on teacher training and community building among educators In its in depth look at multimodal approaches to learning as meaning making in a digital world this book will be of interest to students and scholars in multimodality English language teaching digital communication and education Tutorial Distance Learning Alfred Bork,Sigrun Gunnarsdottir,2012-12-06 Learning is a critical worldwide problem for humans essential to create a peaceful and happy world We have serious problems in learning in both wealthy and poor areas New approaches to learning are needed as the current system may not rise to the new challenges This book proposes a new strategy for learning worldwide and for all ages of students Computer based distance learning would be the major delivery mechanism with very large numbers of students The very frequent interactions between the student and the computer would be like that with a skilled human teacher These interactions would take place in the student s native language in both directions A typical interaction would be a question to a student and a free form student response Both voice and keyboard student input would be possible The learning programs would work with each student until mastery is achieved adapting to the needs of each Students would be active learners The book begins with the problems and goals of learning It considers possible forms of distance learning looking at the variables involved current examples of distance learning and possible future forms including examples from science fiction It then investigates student interactions considering both frequency of interactions and the quality of each interaction Programs developed in the Educational Technology Center at the University of California Irvine illustrate the critical idea of tutorial learning with computers Production of tutorial learning material and costs for a student hour of learning is discussed The book ends with suggestions for future progress Current hardware and software is fully adequate for the tasks described Development of all required learning units is a major activity After this development both better quality of learning and lower costs are very likely Further experimental work is essential to understand the possibilities Encyclopedia of Microcomputers Allen Kent,James G. Williams,1989-02-15 The Encyclopedia of Microcomputers serves as the ideal companion reference to the popular Encyclopedia of Computer Science and Technology Now in its 10th year of publication this timely reference work details the broad spectrum of microcomputer technology including microcomputer history explains and illustrates the use of microcomputers throughout academe business government and society in general and assesses the future impact of this rapidly changing technology Experimental and Formal Language Design Applied to Control Constructs for Interactive Computing David Wayne Embley,1976 Success in Reading and Writing Patricia Horne Sumner,Helen Cappleman,Jean F. Bernholz,1991-10 Educational resource for teachers parents and kids Teacher Acculturation Edward R. Howe,2022-03-16 This book evolved from decades of transcultural experiences Edward Howe s comparative ethnographic narrative a blend of narrative inquiry and reflexive ethnography uniquely captures the essence of teacher acculturation Each chapter is filled with intriguing teachers stories based on lived experiences connected through the common thread of learning to teach Compelling teacher narratives spanning seven decades show that much of what teachers do is learned implicitly and is culturally embedded Teacher Acculturation provides a window into the world of novice teachers from the 1950s through present day The thought provoking stories provide a springboard for critical discussions about gender sexuality culture race ethnicity Indigenous perspectives SES class religion location space time and the challenges facing teachers in different contexts The author highlights the importance of teacher relationships built on mutual understanding trust mentorship leadership and guidance Beginning teachers are largely required to work in isolation to learn their practice through trial and error left to sink or swim There is little provision for mentorship and insufficient time to reflect on teaching practices Collaborative and reflective self study as illustrated in Teacher Acculturation shows great promise to ameliorate this pervasive problem in teacher induction Thus the book will appeal to teacher educators teachers and to anyone interested in the fascinating lives of teachers

Investigations into Assessment in Mathematics Education M. Niss, 2013-06-29 This book is one of the first to attempt a systematic in depth analysis of assessment in mathematics education in most of its important aspects it deals with assessment in mathematics education from historical psychological sociological epistemological ideological and political perspectives The book is based on work presented at an invited international ICMI seminar and includes chapters by a team of outstanding and prominent scholars in the field of mathematics education Based on the observation of an increasing mismatch between the goals and accomplishments of mathematics education and prevalent assessment modes the book assesses assessment in mathematics education and its effects In so doing it pays particular attention to the need for and possibilities of assessing a much wider range of abilities than before including understanding problem solving and posing modelling and creativity The book will be of particular interest to mathematics educators who are concerned with the role of assessment in mathematics education especially as regards innovation and to everybody working within the field of mathematics education and related areas in R D curriculum planning assessment institutions and agencies teacher trainers etc
