L. Circe | The Brilliant Idea of Theology - Theologia Dialogica Eureka Circe,2025 Heroines of the Postmodern and their Worlds in Contemporary Historical Fiction Alicja Bemben,Michael Joseph,2025-09-29 This volume focuses on historical fiction written by and for women approximately in the last 30 years and across the entire globe It comprises three parts Part 1 draws on the theme of the inner life and experiences of the female historical figure Part 2 is concerned with genre bending that fuels the construction of the vast majority of story worlds within the genre and Part 3 with the idea of unusual angles that the historical fiction storytelling employs The Annual of Psychoanalysis, V. 21 Jerome A. Winer,2013-05-13

Volume 21 of The Annual of Psychoanalysis is especially welcome for bringing to English language readers timely contributions from abroad in an opening section on Psychoanalysis in Europe The section begins with a translation of Helmut Thomae's substantial critique of the current state of psychoanalytic education Thomae's proposal for comprehensive reform revolves around a redefinition of the status of the training analysis in analytic training Diane L. Heurich's clinical diary of an analysis focusing on the narcissistic elements of oedipal conflict probes the degree to which the analytic method can be applied to nonstructured analysands And Nella Guidi shows the clinical value of supplementing Freud's notion of unobjectionable positive transference with the complementary notion of unobjectionable negative transference Section II on Psychoanalysis and Hysteria offers original contributions to Freud scholarship in the form of Jules Glenn's reconsideration of Dora's Dynamics Diagnosis and Treatment William McGrath's analysis of the way Freud's hostility to religious superstition gained expression in his early work on hysteria and Marian Tolpin's self psychological reprise on the case of Anne O The section concludes with Elisabeth Young Bruehl and Sarah Cummin's provocative What Happened to Anorexia Hysterica which questions the contemporary separation of anorexia from hysteria and explores the sociohistorical reasons the separation came about Section III Clinical and Theoretical Studies begins with Nancy Kobrin's discussion of Freud's ideas about autonomy including the terms Freud used and the way Strachey translated them into English Her goal is to deepen our understanding of how Freud spoke and thought about an individual's sense of self Frank Summers shows how object relations principles which are shared by various object relations theories can inform the conduct of analysis at all levels of pathology including neurosis And Henry Smith examines the meaning and value of the analytic surface a metaphor that highlights the relationship between the analyst's attention and the patient's attention A final section on Applied Psychoanalysis offers contemporary examples of applied analytic inquiry in anthropology art and literature Roy Grinker III and Roy Grinker Jr in a methodological contribution to psychoanalytic anthropology examine what is revealed when a native people here the Lese of northeastern Zaire in Africa are asked to retell a story here the story of Cain and Abel introduced by them by their Western observers Danielle Knafo explores the art and life of the Mexican surrealist Frida Kahlo through the concepts of the mirror the mask and the masquerade And David Werman closes the volume with a comparative study of

Edgar Allan Poe's and James Ensor's obsession with revenge and the role it played in Poe's writing and Ensor's etchings respectively Bringing readers the influential reform proposals of Thomae a rich sampling of recent Freud scholarship applied contributions traversing three disciplines and original clinical contributions reflecting American and European sensibilities Volume 21 of The Annual is true to the spirit of this distinguished series It testifies to the scope of analytic inquiry and it exemplifies the yield of such inquiry in the hands of gifted scholars and clinicians

Secret of the Muses Retold John T. Kirby, 2000 Precious repositories of ancient wisdom Musty relics of outmoded culture Timeless paragons of artistic achievement Hegemonic tools of intellectual repression Just what are the classics anyway and why do or should we still pay so much attention to them What is the literary canon What is myth and how do we use it These are some of the questions that gave rise to John Kirby's Secret of the Muses Retold This new study of works by five twentieth century Italian writers investigates the abiding influence of the Greek and Roman classics and their rich legacy in our own day The result is not only a splendid introduction to contemporary Italian literature but also a lucid and stimulating meditation on the insights that writers such as Umberto Eco and Italo Calvino have tapped from the wellspring of ancient tradition Kirby's book offers an impassioned plea for the recuperation of the humanities in general and of classical studies in particular No expertise in Greek Latin Italian or literary theory is presumed and both traditional and postmodern perspectives are accommodated

The Art and Politics of Asger Jorn Karen Kurczynski, 2017-07-05 A leading figure of the postwar avant garde Danish artist Asger Jorn has long been recognized for his founding contributions to the Cobra and Situationist International movements yet art historical scholarship on Jorn has been sparse particularly in English This study corrects that imbalance offering a synthetic account of the essential phases of this prolific artist s career It addresses his works in various media alongside his extensive writings and his collaborations with various artists groups from the 1940s through the mid 1960s Situating Jorn s work in an international post Second World War context Karen Kurczynski reframes our understanding of the 1950s away from the Abstract Expressionist focus on individual expression toward a more open ended conception of art as a public engagement with contemporary culture and politics Kurczynski engages with issues of interest to twenty first century artists and scholars highlighting Jorn s proposition that the sensory address of art and its complex relationship to popular media can have a direct social impact Perhaps most significantly this study foregrounds Jorn s assertion that creativity is crucial to subjectivity itself in our increasingly mediated Society of the Spectacle
