Levy Patrick Mwanawasa Amos Malupenga, 2024-05-23 Forthright and upstanding Levy was never afraid to speak his mind. He instilled a culture of transparency in his government and cracked down on corruption, launching the biggest anti-corruption campaign in Zambia. He espoused the values of clean governance as one of the critical requirements for the development and reconstruction of the African continent. Thabo Mbeki, South African President, September 3, 2008: I bring to the people of Zambia and family of President Mwanawasa now the deceased the sympathies and condolences of the brothers and sisterly people of Zimbabwe over the very sad loss of a great man whose work was aimed not only at the development of Zambia but our region as a whole. We shall all certainly miss this great colleague who was always very frank and courageous in expressing his honest views. May God rest him in eternal peace. President Robert Mugabe, September 2, 2008: his message in the book of condolences at State House in Lusaka. It's a hard blow, an extremely hard blow. Who can deny what a blow President Levy Mwanawasa's death is to our country, to our people, to our struggles, how much it means to no longer be able to count on his support, his experience, his inspiration, the strength of his character and reputation which instilled fear in crooks, in the corrupt, the plunderers. It is a fierce blow, a very hard one. But we are sure that he more than anyone was convinced that what is more important is not man's physical life but rather his conduct. This is the only way to explain and understand how Levy's absolute contempt for crooks, thieves and plunderers fits in with his personality and actions. Fred Mmembe, Editor in Chief and Managing Director of The Post, August 19, 2008: on the death of Levy Mwanawasa. A life of great patriotism and pan-Africanism and a life of service to one's people, turning to development that targets the people, a life of honesty, integrity and service without discrimination. His love of all the citizenry has been unprecedented. Former Tanzanian President Benjamin Mkapa, September 2, 2008. New Society, 1979. New Scientist, 1990. Kenya Gazette, 1967-02-03. Owen, 1979. Investment and Risk in Africa Paul Collier, Catherine Pattillo, 2016-07-27. This book brings together academics in the fields of economics, political science and law with business practitioners in the fields of risk assessment and portfolio management. Their contributions are sequenced to tell a story. Africa is perceived as being a highly risky continent. As a result, investment is discouraged. These risks are partly exaggerated. However, to the extent that they reflect genuine problems, they are capable of being mitigated by insurance and reduced by political restraints such as central banks, investment charters and international agreements. International Commerce, 1970-04. Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance, 1997.
