Paulin, 2001 This book contends that one of the primary motivations of British colonialism in southern Africa at the end of the 19th century was to create a cheap readily available supply of African labour through conquest dispossession taxation and the creation of native reserves or locations doing everything in its power to reduce southern Africa's indigenous population to wage earners dependent on Europeans for their survival In doing so they laid the foundation for apartheid in the 20th century The Colonisation of the Southern Tswana, 1870-1900 Kevin Shillington, 1985 Settlement of the lands of the Southern Tswana incorporated since 1977 into the sovereign republic of Bophuthatswana formed from former homelands in the Orange Free State Transvaal and northern Cape Province South Africa The scope of the study is the Tlhaping Rolong and Tlharo chieftaincies that lived between the Vaal and Molopo rivers who were colonized as the Crown Colonies of Griqualand West 1871 1880 and British Bechuanaland 1885 1895 and annexed afterwards to Cape Colony The Rolong living in present day Botswana are excluded from the study Between Sex and Power Göran Therborn, 2004-07-31 The institution of the family changed hugely during the course of the twentieth century In this major new work Göran Therborn provides a global history and sociology of the family as an institution and of politics within the family focusing on three dimensions of family relations on the rights and powers of fathers and husbands on marriage cohabitation and extra marital sexuality and on population policy Therborn's empirical analysis uses a multi disciplinary approach to show how the major family systems of the world have been formed and developed Therborn concludes by assessing what changes the family might see during the next century This book will be essential reading for anybody with an interest in either the sociology or the history of the family A Handbook of Tswana Law and Custom I. Schapera, 2019-09-10 Originally published in 1938 the primary object of this book was to place on record for the information and guidance of government officials and of the Tswana themselves the traditional and modern laws and related customs of the Tswana tribes of the Bechuanaland Protectorate The author was invited in 1934 by the Administration of the Protectorate to undertake the compilation of such a record and the book does not pretend to give a complete account of Tswana life but deals only with those aspects which may be regarded as falling within the province of tribal law Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents ,1981
