Philip Barnes, 2022-09-21 Religion and Worldviews The Triumph of the Secular in Religious Education provides the first serious analysis and review of the Commission on Religious Education s proposed worldviews framework for the subject It argues that religious education has an important contribution to make to the aims of liberal education and examines whether the shift to a worldview framework is capable of overcoming current weaknesses and initiating a new positive direction for the future Chapters explore the role of worldviews in Religious Education covering key debates including Whether there is need for new legislation on RE The nature of professionalism and the role of experts The extent to which there is educational value in study of the personal worldviews of students The role of the religious voice in RE The relation of religions to religious worldviews The aims of RE The relationship between the state and religion Consideration of the nature of a worldview The personal reflections of a member of the Commission on its proposals The chapters provide all that is necessary to understand and to evaluate the current debate on the appropriateness of a worldviews approach to RE Bringing together leading names in the field this is essential reading for trainee and practising teachers of Religious Education RE advisers and schools leaders responsible for curriculum development Global Yorùbá Toyin Falola, 2024-11-19 In Global Yor b renowned scholar Toyin Falola covers the history people traditions environment religion spirituality cosmology culture and philosophy of one of Africa s largest cultural groups the Yor b all while considering the people s relationship with their immediate and distant neighbors Falola examines how the Yor b n people have adapted to their environment and tapped it to re invent their civilization shape their culture and traditions and inform their socioeconomic relations with their neighbors These interactions have guided the Yor b philosophy that developed over time expressing their conviction regarding society s evolution and the place that humans occupy within it This web of knowledge can present a more coherent account than any other text yet produced regarding Yor b civilization This volume demonstrates how global dynamics have been adopted in the creation of a Yor b community across different times and spaces Irish and British Reflections on Catholic Education Sean Whittle, 2021-02-20 This volume presents an interdisciplinary and systematic review of Catholic Education Studies across Ireland and Britain Taken together the chapters drill down to the foundations identity and leadership matters in Catholic education and schools It is in reading the complete volume that a more precise picture of Catholic education in Ireland and Britain develops into sharper focus This is important because it reflects and crystallises the complexity which has almost organically developed within the field of Catholic Education Studies It also provides a powerful antidote to the na ve reductionism that would boil Catholic education down to just one or two fundamental issues or principles Contemporary Catholic education perhaps globally but certainly in Ireland and Britain is best depicted in terms of being a colourful kaleidoscope of differing perspectives However this diversity is ultimately grounded in the underlying unity of purpose because each of the contributors to this volume is a committed advocate of Catholic education The volume brings together a rich range of scholars into one place so that these voices can be listened to as a whole It includes contributions from leading scholars blended with a plethora of other voices who are emerging to become the next generation of leading researchers in Catholic education It also introduces a number of newer voices to the academic context They present fresh perspectives and thinking about matters relating to Catholic education and each of them confidently stand alongside the other contributors Moreover these reflections on Catholic education are important fruits to have emerged from the collaboration made possible through the creation of the Network for Researchers in Catholic Education which was established in 2016 under the auspices of Heythrop College University of London Families and Religion Christel Gärtner, Linda Hennig, Olaf Müller, 2025-03-20 This comparative study examines the transmission of religion in families in Germany Italy Hungary Finland and Canada The authors rely on the widely shared argument that religious change can primarily be understood as an intergenerational process Based on a mixed methods design the book investigates the question of how when exactly and under what conditions the following generations become less religious than the previous ones From the perspective of familial and historical generations the authors examine the significance of religious socialization for the transmission of non religious worldviews affiliation practice and identity According to a central finding religious change takes place primarily in the phase of adolescence against the background of the respective social context Religious Education Ednan Aslan, Margaret Rausch, 2018-06-06 The authors of this volume examine theory and practice regarding past and present roles of Jewish Christian and Islamic religious education in nurturing tolerance interpreted as mutual respect for and recognition of other groups in Eastern Albania Bulgaria Kosovo Macedonia Moldova Montenegro and Romania and Western Finland Germany Italy Latvia and Spain Europe Israel Nigeria and Uzbekistan They also explore potential roles of religion and exclusivism in fostering Islamic state NGOs etc but also averting Islamic legal theory authority Sufism etc radicalization and of secular states in allowing but also banning minority religious education in
