OECD, 2016-02-12 This review assesses the Mexican pension system according to the OECD best practices and guidelines and draws on international experiences and examples to make recommendations on how to improve it Principles of Health Navigation Perrin, 2016-09-08 This text provides an overview of the content and knowledge competencies expected as part of health navigation education including health services delivery and health insurance care of the individual and accessing and analyzing health information competencies IBPS RRB Guide for Officer Scale 1 (Preliminary & Main), 2 & 3 Exam with 4 Online Practice Sets 6th Edition Disha Experts, 2019-04-25 The current book IBPS RRB Guide for Officer Scale I Preliminary Current Banking General Awareness and Current Affairs Financial Awareness The Economics of Professional Road Cycling Daam Van Reeth, Daniel J. Larson, 2015-09-29 Over the past decade a growing body of academic literature on the economics of road cycling has been amassed This book is the first volume to bring together a majority of the academic research and knowledge on the economics and management of professional road cycling Each chapter treats a particular economic aspect of the sport from organizational structure to marketing labor game theory and competitive balance By discussing the existing research and complementing it with the newest concepts ideas and data on professional road cycling this book sets an agenda for further academic research while providing insights for all stakeholders in cycling governments cycling s governing bodies team managers race organizers sponsors media Furthermore the unique characteristics of the sport of cycling explored within this text inform broader management and industrial organization research as they extend analyses of team labor broadcast revenue generation and sponsorship financing models This book is equally of interest to academic researchers students studying sports economics and policy makers such as race organizers team managers and sponsors Paths between Peace and Public Service Jürgen René Blum, Marcos Ferreiro-Rodríguez, Vivek Srivastava, 2018-12-28 Building a capable public service is fundamental to postconflict state building Yet in postconflict settings short term pressures often conflict with this longer term objective To ensure peace and stabilize fragile coalitions the imperative for political elites to hand out public jobs and better pay to constituents dominates merit Donor financed projects that rely on technical assistants and parallel structures rather than on government systems are often the primary vehicle for meeting pressing service delivery needs What then is a workable approach to rebuilding public services postconflict Paths between Peace and Public Service seeks to answer this question by comparing public service reform trajectories in five countries Afghanistan Liberia Sierra Leone South Sudan and Timor Leste in the aftermath of conflict The study seeks to explain these countries different trajectories through process tracing and structured focused methods of comparative analysis To reconstruct reform trajectories the report draws on more than 200 interviews conducted with government officials and other stakeholders as well as administrative data The study analyzes how reform trajectories are influenced by elite bargains and highlights their path dependency shaped by preconflict legacies and the specifics of the conflict period As the first systematic study on postconflict public service reforms it identifies lessons for the future engagement of development partners in building public services Rebuilding the bureaucracy is possibly the most underappreciated policy and research question in fragile states today This is one of the most politically astute and thoughtful books I've read on postconflict policy making of any kind Christopher Blattman Ramalee E Pearson Professor of Global Conflict Studies Pearson Institute for the Study and Resolution of Global Conflicts Harris Public Policy University of Chicago Rebuilding states after conflict is the greatest challenge in development today And yet we know precious little about the actual experience of countries that have tried to rebuild their civil service and restore public services This is a monumental study based on extensive empirical data and field based research across multiple cases that actually opens up the black box of state building in conflict affected countries It should be required reading for anyone who takes on this extraordinary challenge Joel S Hellman Dean Edmund A Walsh School of Foreign Service Georgetown University There isn't a more pressing problem in international development than formulating practical strategies for building institutions in fragile states This book is a remarkable distillation of the frontline experiences of the World Bank in tackling this task Finally we have the basis for an empirically grounded assessment of what works and why Unputdownable James Robinson Reverend Dr Richard L Pearson Professor of Global Conflict and University Professor Institute Director Pearson Institute for the Study and Resolution of Global Conflicts Harris Public Policy University of Chicago
