Neoliberalism Economic Policy and the Collapse of the Public Sector Lionel D. Lyles PhD., 2018-07-13 My book demonstrates how classical liberalism was the foundation upon which Thomas Jefferson George Washington Alexander Hamilton and others wrote the Declaration of Independence Constitution and the Bills of Rights however it was rolled back by 1980 and replaced with neoliberalism which was championed by the Reagan Administration In short this ideology has one main aim and that is to shrink government cut the budgets of social programs and give away billions of taxpayer dollars to private business in the form of tax breaks During the Jindal administration and by the end of its first term more than 7 billion worth of tax breaks had been given away to private business A surplus of 1 billion left in the Louisiana treasury by outgoing governor Kathleen Blanco after Hurricane Katrina was given away by the end of the first two months of its first term Today the Louisiana legislature is currently facing a 650 million fiscal cliff and no doubt more budget cuts are in store for the Louisiana public sector

Educating the Sons of Sugar R. Eric Platt, 2017-10-10 A study of Louisiana French Creole sugar planters role in higher education and a detailed history of the only college ever constructed to serve the sugar elite The education of individual planter classes cotton tobacco sugar is rarely treated in works of southern history Of the existing literature higher education is typically relegated to a footnote providing only brief glimpses into a complex instructional regime responsive to wealthy planters R Eric Platt s Educating the Sons of Sugar allows for a greater focus on the mindset of French Creole sugar planters and provides a comprehensive record and analysis of a private college supported by planter wealth Jefferson College was founded in St James Parish in 1831 surrounded by slave holding plantations and their cash crop sugar cane Creole planters regionally known as the ancienne population designed the college to impart a genteel liberal arts education through instruction architecture and geographic location Jefferson College played host to social class rivalries Creole Anglo American and French immigrant mirrored the revival of Catholicism in a region typified by secular mores was subject to the Americanization of south Louisiana higher education and reflected the ancienne population's decline as Louisiana's ruling population. Resulting from loss of funds the college closed in 1848. It opened and closed three more times under varying administrations: French immigrant private sugar planter and Catholic Marist before its final closure in 1927 due to educational competition, curricular intransigence and the 1927 Mississippi River flood. In 1931 the campus was purchased by the Society of Jesus, Jesuits, and reopened as a silent religious retreat. It continues to function to this day as the Manresa House of Retreats. While in existence, Jefferson College was a social thermometer for the white French Creole sugar planter ethos that instilled the sons of sugar with a cultural heritage resonant of a region typified by the management of plantations, slavery and the production of sugar.

Library Collaborations and Community Partnerships Vicki Hines-Martin, Fannie M. Cox, Henry R. Cunningham, 2020-05-24. Library Collaborations and Community Partnerships illustrates the value of libraries and their resources through an array of alliances to improve health and enhance people's lives. It is unique in its illustration of key principles of collaboration: partner engagement, shared leadership, project development and outcomes measurement as well as the challenges inherent in collaborations among diverse partners. The book includes collaboration exemplars focused on education, health, information literacy and capacity building for populations that experience access and resource disparities. It highlights the innovative use of existing assets, environments and diverse professions to broaden access to resources and information to those in need. The strategies, challenges, outcomes and lessons learned that are described in the volume have application for a variety of settings and populations. Highlighting the key role that libraries play in guiding successful interprofessional collaborations with communities, Library Collaborations and Community Partnerships should be of interest to academics, students and professionals engaged in library and information science, education, health care, social services and community organizations.

Epilepsy Kathryn Gay, 2017-03-17. According to recent statistics at least 50 million people worldwide have epilepsy, including more than 5.1 million Americans. Because there are so many different types of epilepsy, each with its own behavioral effects and treatment, it can be overwhelming for teens to handle. They need a reliable resource to guide them as they navigate the challenges of their condition. In Epilepsy: The Ultimate Teen Guide, Kathryn Gay dispels the myths, misconceptions and misunderstandings about epilepsy and people who have the disorder. The second edition of this book provides up-to-date, positive, factual medical information and advice for young people and their families about how to live a normal life with epilepsy. Topics covered in this book include symptoms of epilepsy, signs and factors that precipitate seizures, treatment methods, medications, management strategies. Real-life examples from teens who have epilepsy help readers understand how they can participate in normal activities. These teens also offer advice on how to tell friends, dates, teachers or employers about the condition. Epilepsy: The Ultimate Teen Guide, Second Edition concludes with extensive lists of publications, websites and organizations to help those with a diagnosis prepare for a hopeful future.
