2015 2016 Sa Military Application Form

Warikandwa, Tapiwa V.

2015 2016 Sa Military Application Form:

South Africa and United Nations Peacekeeping Offensive Operations Garcia, Antonio, 2018-08-16 The creation of the Force Intervention Brigade FIB as the sharp tactical edge of the United Nations Stabilisation Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo MONUSCO tasked with the neutralising of armed groups was a watershed moment in the history of modern peace missions What was more significant was that sub Saharan national leaders were instrumental in the creation of the FIB South Africa Tanzania and Malawi but lacked the resources to deploy such a force and consequently the brigade was deployed under the banner of the UN With the legacy of an African Renaissance and its role in the conception of the FIB South Africa remains a critical player in international peace and security in sub Saharan Africa and therefore holds a key strategic role in achieving the FIB s objectives This comes at a critical time where blue helmets are increasingly exposed to complex and challenging security contexts The aim of this work is to provide a conceptual model for South African military future operations and UN offensive peacekeeping operations In this undertaking a layer of military and Clausewitzian theory is added to offensive peacekeeping operations Furthermore there are sections on operational constructs capstone and operating concepts doctrine and structural elements as well a section on mine action This book contributes towards an understanding of the nature of modern strategy through the lens of UN offensive peacekeeping operations and provides insights into operational challenges

Pakistan's War Machine: An Encyclopedia of its Weapons, Strategy and Military Security Saghir Iqbal, 2018-05-13 The global security challenges after the post Cold war period has affected many countries Pakistan s geography and location present its security planners with serious almost irresolvable strategic and tactical problems It borders the nuclear states of India and China an ambitious Iran and an unstable Afghanistan which is perceived as a gateway to its commercial strategic ambitions in Central Asia Pakistan s key security problems are a reflection of its history and domestic circumstances The overriding concern of Pakistan is its internal and external security Strategically Pakistan lacks territorial depth Its main cities and communication routes are relatively close to the border with India and are susceptible to attack In addition the headwaters of Pakistan s rivers and main irrigation systems originate from India Pakistan s borders with India were also new and mainly unfortified and in many places were drawn in ways that made them indefensible Because the borders were also un demarcated there was abundant chance for conflict Pakistan has particularly been affected with a number of issues It has been argued by many that a Fourth generation Hybrid war has been imposed on Pakistan in order to break the nation Balkanization of Pakistan into different parts with the aim of making it either extremely weak or total destruction as a nation state so that it is not able to challenge the hegemonistic ambitions of its adversaries The purpose of this book is to assess the military security problems that Pakistan faces and focus on its external security matters military threats from neighbouring countries such as India balance of power in the region nuclear and ballistic missile threats relationship with external powers the high risk of war and its role on the War on Terror and its internal security problems sectarianism proliferation of small arms refugees ethnic violence drug problem economic weaknesses and also its ability to cope with these problems ICCWS 2018 13th International Conference on Cyber Warfare and Security Dr. Louise Leenen, 2018-03-08 These proceedings represent the work of researchers participating in the 13th International Conference on Cyber Warfare and Security ICCWS 2018 which is being hosted this year by the National Defense University in Washington DC USA on 8-9 March 2018 Culture and Crisis Communication Amiso M. George, Kwamena Kwansah-Aidoo, 2017-09-18 A collection of case studies from nonwestern countries that offers an analysis of the significant role culture plays in crisis communication Culture and Crisis Communication presents an examination of how politics culture religion and other social issues affect crisis communication and management in nonwestern countries From intense human tragedy to the follies of the rich the chapters examine how companies organizations news outlets health organizations technical experts politicians and local communities communicate in crisis situations Taking a wider view than a single country's perspective the text contains a cross cultural and cross country approach In addition the case studies offer valuable lessons that organizations that wish to operate or are operating in those cultures can adopt in preparing and managing crises The book highlights recent crisis events such as Syria's civil war missing Malaysia Flight MH370 and Japan's Fukushima Daiichi nuclear power plant disaster Each of the case studies examines how culture impacts communication and responses to crises Authoritative insightful and instructive this important resource Analyzes how nonwestern cultures respond to crises Covers the role of culture in crisis communication in recent news events Includes contributions from 18 international authors who provide insight on nonwestern culture and crisis communication Written for communication professionals academics and students Culture and Crisis Communication presents an insightful introduction to the topic of culture and crisis communication and then delves into illustrative case studies that explore intra cultural and trans boundary crisis communication Islamic Ecumene David S. Powers, Eric Tagliacozzo, 2023-11-15 The essays in Islamic Ecumene address the ways in which Muslims from Morocco to Indonesia and from sub Saharan Africa to the steppes of Uzbekistan are members of a broad cultural unit Although the Muslim inhabitants of these lands speak dozens of languages represent numerous ethnic groups and practice diverse forms of Islam they are united by shared practices and worldviews shaped by religious identity To highlight these commonalities the co editors invited a team of scholars from a wide range of disciplines to examine Muslim societies in comparative and interconnected ways The result is a book that showcases ethics education architecture the arts modernization political resistance marriage divorce and death rituals Using the insights and methods of historians anthropologists literary critics art historians political scientists and sociologists Islamic Ecumene seeks to understand Islamic identity as a dynamic phenomenon that is reflected in the multivalent practices of the more than one billion people across the planet who identify as Muslims Mining Africa Warikandwa, Tapiwa V., 2017-05-01 This book is a pacesetter in matters of mining and the environment in Africa from multidisciplinary and spatio temporal perspectives The book approaches mining from the perspectives of law politics archaeology anthropology African studies geography human ecology sociology history economics and development It interrogates mining and environment from the perspectives of customary law as well as from the perspectives of Euro modern laws In this sense the book straddles precolonial colonial and postcolonial mining and environmental perspectives In all this it maintains a Pan Africanist perspective that also speaks to contemporary debates on African Renaissance and to the unity of Africa From scrutinising the lived realities of African miners who are often insensitively and unjustly addressed as illegal miners the book also interrogates transnational mining corporations matters of corporate social responsibility as well as matters of tax evasions by transnational corporations whose commitment to accountability to African governments is questioned With both theoretical chapters and chapter based on empirical studies on mining and the environment across the African continent the book provides a much needed holistic one stop shop for scholars activists researchers and policy makers who need a comprehensive treatise on African mining and the environment The book comes at the right time when matters of African mining and environment are increasingly coming to the fore in the light of discourses about the new 21st century scramble for African resources in which big transnational corporations and nations are jostling to suck Africa dry in their race to control planetary resources It is a book that speaks to contemporary broader issues of de coloniality and transformation of African minds and African environmental resources
