Knowledge for a Sustainable World

The search for answers to the issue of global sustainability has become increasingly urgent. In the context of higher education, many universities and academics are seeking new insights that can shift our dependence on ways of living that rely on the exploitation of so many and the degradation of so much of our planet. This is the vision that drives SANORD and many of the researchers and institutions within its network. Although much of the research is on a relatively small scale, the vision is steadily gaining momentum, forging dynamic collaborations and pathways to new knowledge. The contributors to this book cover a variety of subject areas and offer fresh insights about chronically under-researched parts of the world. Others document and critically reflect on innovative approaches to cross-continental teaching and research collaborations. This book will be of interest to anyone involved in the transformation of higher education or the practicalities of cross-continental and cross-disciplinary academic collaboration. The Southern African-Nordic Centre (SANORD) is a network of higher education institutions from Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway, Sweden, Botswana, Namibia, Malawi, South Africa, Zambia and Zimbabwe. Universities in the southern African and Nordic regions that are not yet members are encouraged to join.

Insidious Capital

With a team of anthropologists and geographers, Insidious Capital explores “value and values” in what may well be the last phase of capitalist globalization. In a global perspective of fast transforming social spaces that move from East to West, the book explores the struggles around the exploitation and valuation of labor, environmental politics, expansion of the ground rent, new hierarchies, the contradictions of higher education, the off shoring of “immaterial” labor, the illiberal right, and the mobilizations against it. This is a book about the variegated frontlines of value within an uneven, but not random, geography of capitalist expansion.

Home economics Sacha Hepburn,2022-08-16 Domestic service has long been one of the largest forms of urban employment across southern Africa Home economics provides the first comprehensive history of this essential sector in the decades following independence and the end of apartheid Focusing on Lusaka and drawing wider comparisons the book traces how Black workers and employers adapted existing models of domestic service as part of broader responses to changing gendered employment patterns economic decline and endemic poverty It reveals how kin based domestic service gradually displaced wage labour and how women and girl workers came to dominate kin based and waged domestic service with profound consequences for labour regulation and worker organising Theoretically innovative and empirically rich the book provides essential insights into debates about gender work and urban economies that are critical to understanding southern Africa s post colonial and post apartheid history

Swallowing a World Benjamin Bergholtz,2024-10 Swallowing a World offers a new theorization of the maximalist novel Though it s typically cast as a white male genre of U S fiction maximalism Benjamin Bergholtz argues is an aesthetic response to globalization and a global phenomenon in its own right Bergholtz considers a selection of massive and meandering novels that crisscross from London and Lusaka to Kingston Kabul and Kashmir and that represent formally reproduce and ultimately invite reflection on the effects of globalization Each chapter takes up a maximalist novel that simultaneously maps and formally mimics a cornerstone of globalization such as the postcolonial culture industry Salman Rushdie s Midnight s Children the rebirth of fundamentalism Zadie Smith s White Teeth the transnational commodification of violence Marlon James s A Brief History of Seven Killings the obstruction of knowledge by narrative Zia Haider Rahman s In the Light of What We Know and globalization s gendered asymmetrical growth Namwali Serpell s The Old Drift By reframing analysis of maximalism around globalization Swallowing a World not only reimagines one of the most perplexing genres of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries but also sheds light on some of the most perplexing political problems of our precarious present

The Palgrave Handbook of Urban Ethnography Italo Pardo,Giuliana B. Prato,2017-11-14 These ethnographically based studies of diverse urban experiences across the world present cutting edge research and stimulate an empirically grounded theoretical reconceptualization The essays identify ethnography as a powerful tool for making sense of life in our rapidly changing complex cities They stress the point that while there is no need to fetishize fieldwork or to view it as an end in itself its unique value cannot be overstated These active engaged researchers have produced essays that avoid abstractions and generalities while engaging with the analytical complexities of ethnographic evidence Together they prove the great value of knowledge produced by long term fieldwork to mainstream academic debates and more broadly to society
