Cold War Art Worlds Simone Wille, 2025-11-05 During the Cold War the Central European capital city Prague along with other previously less noticed locations in the polarised post war world emerged as a key site where an art world of particular importance for artists from South Asia developed By emphasising cultural mobility as a catalyst for exchange and network building this book challenges and complicates assumptions about Cold War binaries of East and West and the polarisation between so called totalitarian regimes and free cultures Positioning Prague as a nexus where South Asian modernisms intersected with multiple peoples histories and ideologies in the post World War II era it offers a narrative of decolonisation that rejected rigid systemic alignment in favour of participation across blocs by prioritising migratory aesthetics over nationalist parochialism Well researched and rich in archival materials this book proposes new ways of writing art histories and makes a significant contribution to both Cold War studies and critical global modernism studies Museum of Foreign Literature, Science and Art, 1833 Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair, C. H. Bleaney, Pablo García Suárez, 2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies The London Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, Etc, 1825 Creative Life Bob Ostertag, 2024-03-18 In this eloquent and passionate volume Bob Ostertag explores the common ground and points of friction among music creativity politics culture and technology In terrain ranging from the guerrilla underground in El Salvador's civil war to the drag queen underground in San Francisco and New York these essays combine journalism and autobiography to explore fundamental questions of what art is and what role it can occupy in a violent and fragmented world a world in which daily events compromise the universality toward which art strives Drawing on his intimate engagement with political conflict in Latin America and the Balkans Ostertag identifies an art of insurgent politics that struggles to expand the parameters of the physical and social world He also discusses his innovative collaborations with major modern performers filmmakers and artists around the world Part memoir part journalism and part aesthetic manifesto Creative Life is a dazzling set of writings from a musical artist who has worked on the cutting edge of new music for thirty years Reassessing Early Safavid Art and History, Thirty Five Years after Dickson & Welch 1981 Abolala Soudavar, 2016 Martin Dickson once confided to Stuart Cary Welch that twenty five years would pass before our fellow specialists would fully comprehend what we had achieved The achievement he was referring to is the monumental double volume The Houghton Shahnama 1981 still ill understood thirty five years later Their achievement is a treasure trove of information that needs to be rediscovered and reused Three recent papers that tried to discredit Dickson and Welch

provided the impetus to revisit some of the complex manuscripts that they had analyzed including the British Library Khamseh O 2265 and the Cartier Divan of Hafez to discover historical details that provide a better insight into Safavid society

The Transcultural Critic: Sabahattin Ali and Beyond Seyda Ozil, Michael Hofmann, Jens Peter Laut, Yasemin Dayioglu-Yücel, Cornelia Zierau, 2017 The central theme of this volume is the work of Sabahattin Ali the Turkish author and translator from German into Turkish who achieved posthumous success with his novel Kırk Mantolu Madonna The Madonna in the Fur Coat Our contributors analyze this novel which takes place largely in Germany and several other texts by Ali in the context of world literature cultural translation and intertextuality Their articles go far beyond the intercultural love affair that has typically dominated the discussion of Madonna Other articles consider Zafer enocak's essay collection Deutschsein and transcultural learning through picture books An interview with Selim Zdo rounds out the issue

Art and Street Politics in the Global 1960s William Marotti, 2023-04-28 Anarchic street performances in late 1950s Japan inauguration of the first Happenings in Antwerp and charging of the magic circle in Amsterdam Bauhaus Situationist and anti-national art exchanges networks and communes As Happener and Art Missionary Yoshio Nakajima's storied career traverses an astounding range of locations scenes movements media and performance modes in the global 1960s and 1970s in ways that challenge our notions of the possibilities of art Nakajima repeatedly plays a role in jump starting spaces of possibility from Tokyo to Ubboboda from Spui Square and the Dutch Provos to Antwerp and Sweden Despite this Nakajima's work has paradoxically been largely excluded from accounts where it might have justifiably featured The present volume represents an international collaboration of researchers working to remedy this oversight Nakajima's work demands a reconceptualization of narratives of this art and politics and their specific interrelation to consider his exemplary nonconformity and its exemplary exclusion This history demonstrates the inadequacy of notions of specificity that would oppose an authentic local or national frame to an inauthentic transnational one Conversely Nakajima manifests a key dimension of the 1960s as a global event in the interrelation between eventfulness itself and the redrawing of categories of practice and understanding

Blood in the Moonlight Mark E. Wildermuth, 2010-06-28 Director and screenwriter Michael Mann is the creative force behind such movies as Last of the Mohicans and Ali Markedly reticent Mann prefers that his personal background remain an enigma but his disparate films contain clear and consistent messages One of Mann's focuses is on the Information Age He addresses the nature of modern communication its use to manipulate and coerce and the resultant subjugation of truth The perils inherent in modern technology and communication stand in stark contrast to the power of symbolic and oral exchange the trusted medium of Mann's protagonists This critical exploration of the films of Michael Mann examines his recurring focus on the nature of modern communication and information and their effect on the individual and society Mann's films highlight the struggle to maintain a connection to reality in a world where information is a commodity manipulated and abused by forces that exert increasing control over its content and dissemination Each chapter examines one of Mann's films including Manhunter The Keep Last of the Mohicans The Insider and Ali in which the protagonist longs for a sense of human connection but is pitted against forces that devalue and destroy individuality Photographs illustrate specific moments from the films A bibliography and an index are included

Turkish Traditional Art Today Henry Glassie, 1993 He tells of architecture calligraphy woodworking and earthenware but lays particular emphasis on the brilliant underglaze painted ceramics of Kutahya and the rich piled carpets for which Turkey has been famed for centuries While searching for the traits that define art and the stylistic complexities that characterize Turkish creativity Glassie focuses on the artists and their theories and practices as well as the works they produce

With Faith in God and Heart and Mind Maurice J. Hobson, Eddie R. Cole, Jim C. Harper, Derrick P. Alridge, 2025-05 When Edgar A Love Oscar J Cooper Frank Coleman and Ernest Everett Just founded the historically Black fraternity Omega Psi Phi on November 17 1911 at Howard University they could not have known how great of an impact their organization would have on American life Over the 110 years that followed its members led colleges and universities served in prominent military roles made innumerable contributions to education civic society science and medicine and at least one campaigned for the US presidency This book offers a comprehensive authoritative history of the fraternity emphasizing its vital role through multiple eras of the Black freedom struggle The authors address both the individual work of its membership which has included such figures as Carter G Woodson Bayard Rustin Roy Wilkins James L Farmer Jr Benjamin Elijah Mays James Clyburn Jesse Jackson and Benjamin Crump and the collective efforts of the fraternity's leadership to encourage its general membership to contribute to the struggle in concrete ways over the years The result is a book that uniquely connects the 1910s with the present showing the ongoing power of a Black fraternal organization to channel its members toward social reform

The OIC, the UN, and Counter-Terrorism Law-Making Katja Samuel, 2014-07-18 The increasingly transnational nature of terrorist activities compels the international community to strengthen the legal framework in which counter terrorism activities should occur at every level including that of intergovernmental organizations This unique timely and carefully researched monograph examines one such important yet generally under researched and poorly understood intergovernmental organization the Organization of Islamic Cooperation OIC formerly the Organization of the Islamic Conference In particular it analyses in depth its institutional counter terrorism law making practice and the relationship between resultant OIC law and comparable

UN norms in furtherance of UN Global Counter Terrorism Strategy goals Furthermore it explores two common misassumptions regarding the OIC namely whether its internal institutional weaknesses mean that its law making practice is inconsequential at the intergovernmental level and whether its self declared Islamic objectives and nature are irrelevant to its institutional practice or are instead reflected within OIC law Where significant normative tensions are discerned between OIC law and UN law the monograph explores not only whether these may be explicable at least in part by the OIC s Islamic nature and objectives but also whether their corresponding institutional legal orders are conflicting or cooperative in nature and the resultant implications of these findings for international counter terrorism law and policy making This monograph is expected to appeal especially to national and intergovernmental counter terrorism practitioners and policy makers as well as to scholars concerned with the interaction between international and Islamic law norms From the Foreword by Professor Ben Saul The University of Sydney Dr Samuels book must be commended as an original and insightful contribution to international legal scholarship on the OIC Islamic law international law and counter terrorism It fills significant gaps in legal knowledge about the vast investment of international and regional effort that has gone into the global counter terrorism enterprise over many decades and which accelerated markedly after 9 11 The scope of the book is ambitious its subject matter is complex and its sources are many and diverse Dr Samuel has deployed an appropriate theoretical and empirical methodology harnessed an intricate knowledge of the field and brought a balanced judgement to bear to bring these issues to life
