Clueless in L.A. D.J. Martin, 2013-12-27 My name is Matt Diamond not that that really matters I spent a little over ten years in the LA Police Department before I woke up one morning and asked myself What the hell am I doing This is a dirty business and when I worked in drugs and alcohol before moving over to homicide it became clear that no one really cared a shit about what I was doing Now if they didnt care why should I give a damn either The pay was minimum wage there was little time to myself and sleep came less and less every day The day I turned in my badge was much more exciting than when I put it on that first day When we threw our hats in the air at the Academy I felt like I could make a difference Wrong again When you join the police department you have the feeling you can make a difference but the day you resign you know you didnt make a dent in this sorry no thanks society You often wondered whom you were trying to protect and found out it was you Thats old news This was a new beginning for me I received my license as a freelance private detective completely on my own Nobody to tell me where to go every morning at briefing No shooting in east LA for me to investigate for the 100th time If you are ever in that area it is a real war zone but you dont know who you are supposed to be fighting Killing each other the blacks against the Mexicans the police trying to bring order where no one really wanted it Believe me it is no place for some guy like me who I felt was dedicated to preventing such things You couldnt get a witness to point out a shooter for fear they might be the next victim Tell me one person who really cared what went on in that hell hole and I will show you a liar The name on my fleabag so called office now read Matt Diamond Private Investigator Not only was this my office it was also where I lived There was a pull down bed that I never really put back in the wall a small refrigerator in one corner a really nice hot plate and a small bath with shower and toilet But it was mine and the rent was paid for a year due to the vacation money I received when leaving the LAPD

Devotions for the Wounded Heart Dennis Cory,2011-01-25 When Jesus Christ began His earthly ministry He first went out and got baptised and was then lead of the Holy Spirit into the wilderness and there was tempted of the devil Then in the power of the Spirit He began teaching in the synagogues When He came to His home town of Nazareth and went to church on the sabath and stood up to read The elders delivered the book of Isaiah to Him and He opened the book to the place where He read these words The Spirit of the Lord is upon me because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted to preach deliverance to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind to set at liberty them that are bruised To preach the acceptable year of the Lord Luke 4 18 19 KJV Jesus chose this passage of scripture because it was known to be a prophecy of the coming Messiah and it is a concise outline of the purpose and ministry calling of our Lord The Holy Spirit living in the hearts of every born again Christian is working to fulfill this scripture for us all Jesus Christ by The Spirit is also drawing all people to Him for their salvation through the measure of faith which our loving Father God has given to every person It is will of God that no human being perish but that everyone would come to repnetence It is therefore His will that we all hear and resond to the gospel That our broken hearts be healed that the chains of our captive bondage be broken our physical and spritual eyes be opened and every bruise and wound we carry be healed That is the Theme Calling and Purpose by which this Daily Devotional has been inspired to be written The Word of God is clear in that our Heavenly Father wants all people to accept His salvation but just as true He wants all to be healed and delivered It is my prayer that this Devotional will be used of The Lord to help accomplish this work in your lives
