Reconceptualizing STEM Education Richard A. Duschl, Amber S. Bismack, 2016-01-08 Reconceptualizing STEM Education explores and maps out research and development ideas and issues around five central practice themes Systems Thinking Model Based Reasoning Quantitative Reasoning Equity Epistemic and Ethical Outcomes and STEM Communication and Outreach These themes are aligned with the comprehensive agenda for the reform of science and engineering education set out by the 2015 PISA Framework the US Next Generation Science Standards and the US National Research Council's A Framework for K 12 Science Education The new practice focused agenda has implications for the redesign of preK 12 education for alignment of curriculum instruction assessment STEM teacher education and professional development postsecondary further and graduate studies and out of school informal education In each section experts set out powerful ideas followed by two eminent discussant responses that both respond to and provoke additional ideas from the lead papers In the associated website highly distinguished nationally recognized STEM education scholars and policymakers engage in deep conversations and considerations addressing core practices that guide STEM education The Ministry of Justice's Language Service Contract Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Committee of Public Accounts,2012-12-14 Before January 2012 the Ministry generally booked interpretation services directly with individual interpreters many of whom were listed on the National Register of Public Service Interpreters NRPSI This approach was administratively inefficient and the Ministry decided to set up a new centralised procurement system The Ministry awarded the contract to a company ALS that was clearly incapable of delivering Despite having been warned that ALS was too small to shoulder a contract worth more than 1 million it went ahead and handed them an annual 42 million national contract The Ministry did not understand its own basic requirements and ignored the views of interpreters who had serious concerns about the contract Capita took over ALS in late 2011 The Ministry needed access to 1 200 interpreters when the contract went live but the company had only 280 properly assessed interpreters willing to work for it The Ministry though still decided to go live nationally in one go Many of the interpreters it thought were available had simply registered an interest on the company s website and had been subject to no official checks As a result the company was able to meet only 58% of bookings causing a sharp rise in delayed postponed and abandoned trials individuals being kept on remand solely because no interpreter was available and the quality of interpreters has at times been appalling However Capita has only been fined 2 200 to date for failing to meet the terms of the contract Capita ALS is now fulfilling more bookings but it is still struggling The Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords,2012 School Choice in Europe Robert Maranto,Tommaso Agasisti,Rodrigo Queiroz e Melo,2025-02-05 In this book leading experts present rigorous readable studies of education policies and school markets in 11 European countries from Ireland to Ukraine offering lessons for researchers policymakers and educators No other book fills this niche Americans debating whether parents choosing their children s schools will improve education would be wise to learn from a century of experience in Europe where most governments have long subsidized private schools including religious schools Likewise Europeans debating this issue may learn that there is a varied landscape of state private school arrangements around Europe and that the one specific to their country may be enriched by these experiences This volume brings together leading European researchers who present rigorous readable studies exploring how education markets work in 11 European countries from Ireland to Ukraine The chapters cover a range of topics including empirical examinations of the reasons Irish parents choose single sex education how a Ukrainian school improvised to serve students and parents in a war zone how school choice defused culture wars in countries as varied as the Netherlands and Estonia how the German left and right embraced increased parental agency for different reasons the effectiveness of central regulations of autonomous British schools how changing subsidy levels affect demand for private schooling in Italy and Portugal the motivations of Hungarian parents choosing schools and the impacts of social class on schooling choices and policies in Sweden Germany and Spain This volume will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of education education policy and leadership educational research economics and sociology The chapters included in this book were originally published in the Journal of School Choice
