All Tomorrows Parties:

All Tomorrow's Parties Rob Spillman, 2016-04-05 In this carefully wrought coming of age memoir a young American writer searches for home in an unlikely place East Berlin immediately after the fall of the wall Publishers Weekly starred review Rob Spillman the award winning charismatic cofounding editor of the legendary Tin House magazine has devoted his life to the rebellious pursuit of artistic authenticity Born in Germany to two driven musicians his childhood was spent among the West Berlin cognoscenti in a city two hundred miles behind the Iron Curtain There the Berlin Wall stood as a stark reminder of the split between East and West between suppressed dreams and freedom of expression After an unsettled youth moving between divorced parents in disparate cities Spillman would eventually find his way into the literary world of New York City only to abandon it to return to Berlin just months after the Wall came down Twenty five and newly married Spillman and his wife the writer Elissa Schappell moved to the anarchic streets of East Berlin in search of the bohemian lifestyle of their idols But Spillman soon discovered he was chasing the one thing that had always eluded him a place or person to call home In his intimate entertaining and heartfelt memoir Spillman narrates a colorful music filled coming of age portrait of an artist's life that is also a cultural exploration of a shifting Berlin With wry humor and wonder Spillman beautifully captures the deadpan hedonism of the East Berliners and the city's sense of infinite possibility The New York Times Book Review A thrilling portrait of the artist as intrepid young adventure seeker Vanity Fair Convivial page turning Spillman's life is a good one to read The Washington Post

Eye hEar The Visual in Music Simon Shaw-Miller, 2017-07-05 Eye hEar The Visual in Music employs the concept of the visual in proximate relation to music producing a tension is it not the case that there is a gulf between painting and music between the visible and the audible One is full of colour and light yet silent one is invisible and marvellously noisy Such a belief this book argues betrays an ideological constraint on music desiccating it to sound and art to vision The starting point of this study is more hybrid and hydrating that music is never employed without numerous and complex intersections with the visual By involving the concept of synaesthesia the book evokes music's multi sensory nature stops it from sounding alone and offers music as a subject for art historians Music bleeds into art and visuality in its graphic depiction in notation in the theatre of performance its sights and sites This book looks at music in its absolute guise as a model for art at notation and the conductor as the silent visual fulcra around which music circulates at the music and image of Erik Satie at the concert hall as white cube at the symphonic film 2001 A Space Odyssey and at the liminality of John Cage and Andy Warhol The Ghost of Madame Curie
