Discovering the Art of Soul Friending Carolyn Gratton, 2019-01-28 This friendly accessible book is about the age old hunger in human hearts to open and deepen and grow towards faithful intimacy with the Source of all that is This spiritual journey is radically personal but it is not meant to be entirely solitary It can be supported at crucial times by friendship with someone who has learned how to listen through a life of prayer for the guidance of God's Spirit in their own soul and in the soul of another Long ago in Celtic Christian Ireland such a person was called an anam cara a soul friend Every soul from time to time on its mysterious trek towards union with God needs a human friend for encouragement on the way In Discovering the Art of Soul Friending Carolyn Gratton invites us to say yes to the ability to share with another and to disclose something of oneself on each seeker's journey towards union with God Enriched by a lifetime of insights gained from educating groups around the world she guides aspiring spiritual companions to a discernment of their own level of spiritual maturity sensitivity in the art of spiritual guidance and to a seeker's desires the soil from which their truest love can spring a commitment to prayer and the transformation of consciousness it makes possible rootedness in their own faith tradition and throughout life an openness to the expanded perceptions possible in our multicultural world Carolyn completes each chapter with what she calls a Book Providence section an annotated bibliography of resources that can expand the discernment skills and contextual awareness of potential soul friends

Gaia's Sacred Chakras Margaret Bertulli, 2004 This work is a personal exploration of seven ancient sites as sacred heritage and the relation of each one to one of the seven major chakras In travelling to a sacred place one discovers the site's spiritual power within its actual setting Each site is related to a specific chakra on the basis of the author's experience there and the symbolism and concept associated with the chakra Each chapter begins with an original poem and ends with a guided meditation

The Language of the Soul Jeff Crosby, 2023-05-23 For over fifteen years writer Jeff Crosby has been searching for a language of the soul a way to articulate our deepest longings Through the years he gathered clues from within global music styles from different cultures from his own Christian tradition and its sacred texts and from deep within himself A lover of words he sought not only to translate our longings into words but to understand why these seemingly universal yearnings have long remained unnamed Now in these pages Crosby gifts us with those so often untranslatable desires of our hearts guiding us to finally find the words and luminous insights for our own longings for home for friendship for forgiveness and for transformation and how God meets us in the midst of these longings Eschewing easy answers Crosby begins the naming process helping us to make connections and to recognize within ourselves and our faith our heart's true home

Echoes from a Child's Soul Barbara A. Clark, 2020-07-20 Echoes from a Child's Soul Awakening the Moral Imagination of Children presents remarkable poetry inspired by aesthetic education methodology created by children that were labelled academically socially and or emotionally at risk Many children deemed average or below grade level composed poetry beyond their years revealing moral imagination Art psychology and aesthetic methodology merge to portray the power of awakening children's voices once silenced The children's poetry heralds critical and empathic messages for our future This book proposes an overwhelming need for change in America's public school education system so that no child is ignored silenced deemed less than or marginalized to divine guidance Therapeutic Processes for Communication Disorders Robert J. Fourie, 2010-11-25 Why do many people with disorders of communication experience a sense of demoralization Do these subjective experiences have any bearing on how such problems should be treated How can professionals dealing with speech language hearing and other communication disorders analyse and respond to the subjective and relational needs of clients with such problems In this book authors in the fields of communication disorders analyse the psychological social and linguistic processes and interactions that underpin clinical practice from both client and clinician perspectives The chapters demonstrate how it is possible to analyze and understand client clinician discourse using qualitative research and describe various challenges to establishing relationships such as cultural gender and age differences The authors go on to describe self care processes the therapeutic use of the self and various psychological factors that could be important for developing therapeutic relationships Also covered are the rarely considered topics of spirituality and transpersonal issues which may at times be relevant to clinicians working with clients who have debilitating degenerative and terminal illnesses associated with certain communication disorders While this book is geared toward the needs of practicing and training speech language and hearing clinicians other professional such as teachers of the deaf psychotherapists nurses and occupational therapists will find the ideas relevant interesting and easily translatable for use in their own clinical practice Blessing Our Goodbyes Kathie Quinlan, 2011-05-01 When it is our time is there any one of us who would not hope for a gentle ending to our lives and a peaceful death Yet for many this longing remains elusive Fears and apprehensions cloud our understanding of what is involved in the getting there Many of us choose not to think about death or even consider preparing for this second of our universal human experiences This death unease can lead to our avoiding being with a dying family member or friend sadly missing the precious chance to say goodbye It may also prevent us from taking on the challenging but vastly rewarding role of caregiver It is important to know you do not have to be alone These lessons learned from the dying themselves will show you how the final journey lived fully can be the most extraordinary of your life And yes your goodbyes can be blessed in ways you could never have imagined An Artist Empowered: Define and Establish Your Value as an Artist "Now Eden Maxwell, 2007-06-16 Eden Maxwell is a brilliant and passionate artist who has explored challenged and mastered every facet of the creative process from the trenches to the mountaintops it s all here a powerful and pragmatic textbook for artists of every age and stage of development a virtual how to for creators embarking on the spiritual voyage of a lifetime Mary Anne Bartley Artist in Residence Villanova University WHYY PBS Women's Rites of Passage Abigail Brenner, 2007 Women s Rites of Passage grew out of Abigail Brenner s desire to answer some fundamental questions about the role of rites of passage in contemporary women s lives Relying on a research study involving over 50 women Brenner shows how women today understand the need to take responsibility for their lives and for directing their own paths and are beginning to do so by creating their own very personal rites of passage A Goodness I Cannot Explain Catherine Stewart, 2015-10-30 We found something With these words a Presbyterian minister is thrust into a medical crisis a tumor is pressing on her brain Doctors cannot offer a preferred treatment plan radiation and surgery are equally valid but carry vastly different risks and consequences She herself must choose She plunges into a maze of medical research but the analytical mode of Western culture cannot help her find peace in her decision Instead she is unwittingly led along an ancient prayer path called Lectio Divina and transformed by inexplicable and repeated encounters with goodness Still a community's shepherd in faith she shoulders the question they too ask Can God be found here The maze becomes a labyrinth a spiritual journey that brings her to a center that holds Her decision made she undergoes treatment You must have been terrified a friend says That is when the author realizes that her experience is unusual she had not been afraid How to explain that This memoir recounts how her ideas of God and self are reshaped as she discovers a place of deep knowing and trust Humbled and surprised she experiences in her body the gospel she has preached for years
