movie Above the Fray will not be remade. He is hired to protect the star and his wife known collectively as Thadenzuela Thad Deep and Valenzuela are Hollywood stars of a great magnitude and won't allow their bodyguard to wear a gun. In comes Parker, an aikido master and head of a school that is falling on hard times. He needs a job and they have one for him. Protect them. Parker saves them from a kidnapping attempt, roadkill, and air kisses but quits in the face of shotguns and multiple attackers. It's time to call in reinforcements, he says. Eventually they realize that the only person who can make the action scenes in Above the Fray look real is Parker and he is brought back as the martial art choreographer. Just in time. The Aikido Widow Daniel Linden, 2017-08-07. The Aikido Widow is the tenth Aikido Mystery. Parker is thinking about the rest of his life and contemplating marriage when a dark haired gypsy shows up at his door insisting on learning the esoteric art of Aikido. She is an odd one but comes in with a fist full of money and swaying hips. Parker isn't hooked but can't keep his eyes off her. This novel has a darker tone than most of the Aikido Mysteries and the torrid sex and violence are a far cry from the earlier novels. Parker has to make decisions and before his entire world is stripped from him he needs to lash out and do what he does best. Opie Taylor returns to help him and just in the nick of time. The Aikido-Ka Daniel Linden, 2012-05-01. The Aikido Ka is the second book in The Aikido Mystery Series featuring Aikido Sensei Parker, a sometimes private investigator. Parker's old friend Derek Gunner comes to Parker with a request to find the long lost son of his former army Captain who is dying. Barely escaping that meeting with his life, Parker figures his job is done only to find that instead of going back home and teaching Aikido, he now has to head to the Chicago suburbs and get the young man out of big time trouble. He's in jail for murder and the F B I is screaming for the locals to release him to their custody as well. Parker does what he needs to and finds a way to save him. In the process he finds a stunning woman lawyer that sweeps Parker away like a good koshi nage hip throw. The Aikido Katana Daniel Linden, 2016-10-09. This is the 9th Aikido Mystery. Parker is invited to a special event in Washington D C complete with congressmen and old Aikido friends and of course there will be a seminar. When isn't there a seminar? The purpose of the gathering is to repatriate an old katana, a Japanese sword lost in WWII and now residing in the Smithsonian Institute. It will be returned to an Aikido Sensei who lives and teaches in Japan, the heir of the man who lost it. The congressman who donated the katana to the Smithsonian wants to give it back and to present it himself. And why not? What harm could it do? Who could object? And there will most likely be a great deal of free publicity. It's a win-win. While driving to Washington D C, Erik and Curtis learn of Opie Taylor's damaged and violent past and how he developed his chameleon-like abilities. Strange revelations indeed. Parker kicks back, relaxes, and visits with old friends and Aikido buddies. Meanwhile, an old lover appears while the teachers and students gather. She takes Parker on a stroll down memory lane and we discover a great deal about his early years in Wyoming and Florida. It all goes south pretty fast though. Parker finds himself fighting for his life as he tries to stop the theft of the sword only to see one of his closest friends die while protecting him. Now he is the only eyewitness and he has to deal with D C Metro Police, DCIS, and the FBI and somehow figure out who the thieves and killers are It seems like every obstacle is in his path but then he receives a telephone call from an old friend living in Montana There is nothing like an old friend especially this friend But along with the friend comes allegations that the killer may be far more than just a killer It s up to Parker to do the impossible and to find evidence that even the FBI can t gather Does the conspiracy go back a generation Is the theft and murder part of a plot that could involve the most famous of all Japanese authors How far does it go Will Congress be involved In a tremendous do or die fight Parker throws his Aikido skills and philosophy to the wind and brings fury and rage to the battleground and leaves the carnage to the black helicopters and denizens of the Department of Justice But even then all is not as it seems
