grounded in needs and match our vision for the kind of world we dream of How can we challenge conventional classroom management practices welcome conflict and nurture relationships with and amongst our students to foster positive peace How can we embed love in our curriculum and be inclusive of our students lives centering community healing and justice How can we slow down and take care of ourselves without compromising the urgency to fight for justice When can voluntary suffering meet our needs and empower us How can educators navigate conflict build community with one another and create their own professional development opportunities that support collective care Heart at the Center is a book for educators who believe that a different kind of classroom a different kind of school and a different kind of world are possible

KARATE-DO: Traditional Training for all Styles, 2Ed. Kevin Seiler, Donald Seiler, 2009 My Journey Back to Oneness Mark Perkins, 2004 We spend a great deal of our lives both awake and asleep wondering about the great mysteries of our lives Why am I here What is the meaning of life Why me Is there a God Many of these questions are unanswerable at this point in our path of enlightenment as humans Many can be answered if we allow ourselves to learn our lessons and Reconnect with the Divine Source Through My Journey Back to Oneness we will go on a journey of rediscovery This journey offers you the probability of experiencing healing on physical mental and spiritual levels A journey back to the place where we all started a place of Oneness with the Divine Source Our journey will begin with a refocusing of our perceptions of good and bad us and them and the other representation of duality that influences how we experience the world around us We will then get a glimpse of the concepts behind Hawaiian mysticism and Shamanism and establish the basic understanding of energy and reality as defined in these concepts A brief comparison of religious beliefs follows along with an exploration of a very powerful healing tool prayer This is followed by an exploration of the applications of these concepts Next we will investigate the ancient qualities and basic nature of the concepts discussed Further we will attempt to make ties between these concepts and the origins of human beings Finally there are several appendices outlining recommended readings and training that can enhance your personal journey back to oneness
