Enabling Indigenous Knowledge Systems in Action Research and Action Learning Mapotse, Tomé Awshar, Tetteh, Emmanuel N. A., Matsekoleng, Tsebo Kgoto, 2025-05-29 After centuries of colonialism and imperialism many indigenous knowledge systems have been purposefully disregarded and forgotten to the point that the vast majority of the public but specifically researchers are completely unaware of their existence By utilizing these systems in conjunction with action learning and action research it can be possible to garner perspective and influence from all types of people regardless of their social or economic standing in working towards an inclusive and prosperous global society Enabling Indigenous Knowledge Systems in Action Research and Action Learning encourages researchers the world over to apply Indigenous Knowledge Systems IKS using Action Research and or Action Learning AR AL approaches in their fields of specialization The AR AL framework approaches and methodologies cut across almost all field of studies Covering topics such as action research and learning coloniality and professional development this book is an excellent resource for researchers academicians educators pre service teachers sociologists and more

Early Foreign Language Learning and Teaching Marianne Nikolov, Stela Letica Krevelj, 2024-10-15 Over the past six decades the field of teaching modern foreign languages to young learners has come a long way from the early surmises about the advantages of a young start to today's widespread integration of foreign languages into curricula in public and private schools The chapters in this book bring together internationally renowned researchers who have been vocal in establishing early language teaching and learning as an independent area of research and novice voices who represent a new generation of devoted researchers to present a state of the art volume on the topic The authors address key questions about young learner second foreign language L2 FL development methodological issues when conducting research with young learners L2 FL teaching pedagogy language education policy technology enhanced learning and assessment Together the chapters capture the reality of early FL development in the context of a globalized world and will be of great interest to researchers and postgraduate students of SLA and Applied Linguistics specifically in the field of early language development and teaching languages to young learners

Automated Grammatical Error Detection for Language Learners, Second Edition Claudia Leacock, Michael Gamon, Joel Alejandro Mejia, Martin Chodorow, 2022-06-01 It has been estimated that over a billion people are using or learning English as a second or foreign language and the numbers are growing not only for English but for other languages as well These language learners provide a burgeoning market for tools that help identify and correct learners writing errors Unfortunately the errors targeted by typical commercial proofreading tools do not include those aspects of a second language that are hardest to learn This volume describes the types of constructions English language learners find most difficult constructions containing prepositions articles and collocations It provides an overview of the automated approaches that have been developed to identify and correct these and other classes of learner errors in a number of languages Error annotation and system evaluation are particularly important topics in grammatical error detection because there are no commonly accepted standards Chapters in the book describe the options available to researchers recommend best practices for reporting results and present annotation and evaluation schemes The final chapters explore recent innovative work that opens new directions for research It is the authors hope that this volume will continue to contribute to the growing interest in grammatical error detection by encouraging researchers to take a closer look at the field and its many challenging problems
