The Rat Catchers' Olympics Colin Cotterill, 2017-08-15 The 1980 Olympic Games in Moscow is already rife with controversy but when a Lao athlete is accused of murder it escalates into a full blown international incident In the twelfth entry to the series Dr Siri Paiboun and his quirky team of misfits are on the case in a city and country foreign to them yet familiar in its corruption of justice 1980 The People's Democratic Republic of Laos is proud to be competing in its first ever Olympics Of course half the world is boycotting the Moscow Summer Olympic Games to protest the Soviet Union's recent invasion of Afghanistan but that has made room for athletes from countries that are usually too small or underfunded to be competitive like Laos Ex national coroner of Laos Dr Siri Paiboun may be retired but he and his wife Madame Daeng would do just about anything to have a chance to visit Moscow so Siri finagles them a trip by getting them hired as medical advisers to the Olympians Most of the athletes are young and innocent village people who have never worn running shoes much less imagined anything as marvelous as the Moscow Olympic Village As the competition heats up however Siri begins to suspect that one of the athletes is not who he says he is Fearing a conspiracy Siri and his friends investigate liaising in secret with
