7 Ways of Teaching the Bible to Adults Barbara Bruce, 2010-10-01 This book shows teachers of adults how to use styles of learning to enhance the student's experience and enrich their own teaching. A chapter is devoted to each of the seven styles: verbal, independent, social, visual, physical, musical, and logical. Each chapter includes suggestions for blending the style into lessons, questions to help teachers determine their own preferences, a lesson focusing on the learning style, and a prayer demonstrating the style. A bibliography, appendices, and a self-discovery sheet are included. Appropriate for group or individual study and teacher training.

You decide how you will use this resource: family devotions, small groups, homeschooling, children's church, or camp. Pick and choose from four opening activities and four Bible stories for as many as 28 one-hour sessions and hundreds of teaching moments. Object lessons and discussion questions are included. Karen has written and illustrated a Proverbial Kids character story book for each theme, also available from Westbow Press. All Proverbial Kids materials are available digitally, making it easy to follow God's directive in Deuteronomy 6:7 for on-the-road parenting. At last, a book that practically helps parents disciple their children. My friend Karen Holcomb has written a book series that will transform your family. Proverbial Kids Lesson Plans for Parents and the Proverbial Kids character books are practical, easy-to-use tools. If you seek to be an intentional disciple-making parent, you need this resource.

Mark Smith, D. Min. Senior Consultant, Family Evangelism and Discipleship, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. The Proverbial Kids series by Karen Holcomb is precisely the kind of creative curriculum parents need for family discipleship. I have found the materials biblically sound, creative, and usable by families with a broad range of ages at home. I strongly endorse the series.
