10 Slogans On Public Hygiene:

The Institutionalization of Educational Cinema Marina Dahlquist, Joel Frykholm, 2020-01-14 The potential of films to educate has been crucial for the development of cinema intended to influence culture and is as important as conceptions of film as a form of art science industry or entertainment Using the concept of institutionalization as a heuristic for generating new approaches to the history of educational cinema contributors to this volume study the co evolving discourses cultural practices technical standards and institutional frameworks that transformed educational cinema from a convincing idea into an enduring genre The Institutionalization of Educational Cinema examines the methods of production distribution and exhibition established for the use of educational films within institutions such as schools libraries and industrial settings in various national and international contexts and takes a close look at the networks of organizations individuals and government agencies that were created as a result of these films circulation Through case studies of educational cinemas in different North American and European countries that explore various modes of institutionalization of educational film this book highlights the wide range of vested interests that framed the birth of educational and nontheatrical cinema Public Health Reports ,1998 Municipal Engineering, Motor and Public Health ,1957 Public Health in the British Empire Ryan Johnson, Amna Khalid, 2012-03-12 Over the last several decades historians of public health in Britain's colonies have been primarily concerned with the process of policy making in the upper echelons of the medical and sanitary administrations Yet it was the lower level staff that formed the backbone of public health systems in the colonies Although they constituted the bases of many colonies public health machinery there is no consolidated study of these individuals to date Public Health in the British Empire addresses this gap by bringing together historians studying intermediary and subordinate staff across the British Empire Along with investigating the duties and responsibilities of medical and non medical intermediary and subordinate personnel the contributors to this volume show how the subjectivity of these agents influenced the manner in which they discharged their duties and how this in turn shaped policy Even those working as low level assistants and aids were able to affect policy design In this way Public Health in the British Empire brings into sharp relief the disaggregated nature of the empire thereby challenging the understanding of the imperial project as an enterprise conceived of and driven from the center Material for the Health Education of the Public ...: School hygiene American Medical Association. Bureau of Health and Public Instruction, 1920 Public Health and the Modernization of China, 1865-2015 Liping Bu, 2017-07-14 This book based on extensive original research traces the development of China's public health system showing how advances in public health have been an integral part of China's rise It outlines the phenomenal improvements in public health for example the increase in life expectancy from 38 in 1949 to 73 in 2010 relates developments in public health to prevailing political ideologies and discusses how the drivers of health improvements were unlike in the West modern medical professionals and intellectuals who understood that whatever the prevailing ideology

China needs to be a strong country The book explores how public health concepts policies programmes institutions and practices changed and developed through social and political upheavals war and famine and argues that this perspective of China s development is refreshingly different from China s development viewed purely in political terms Report of the Director-general of Public Health, New South Wales, for the Year Ended ... New South Wales. Dept. of Public Health,1936 American Journal of Public Health ,1927 Includes section Books and reports Public Affairs Information Service Bulletin ,1957 Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications United States.
