Educart, Dr. Rakshita Singh, 2024-07-25 Educart NEET 37 Years Chemistry Solved Papers (PYQs) Chapterwise and Topicwise for NEET 2025 Exam Educart, Dr. Rakshita Singh, 2024-07-25 Lipid Signaling in T Cell Development and Function Karsten Sauer, Klaus Okkenhaug, 2015-11-12 Lipids are best known as energy storing molecules and core components of cellular membranes but can also act as mediators of cellular signaling This is most prominently illustrated by the paramount importance of the phospholipase C PLC and phosphoinositide 3 kinase PI3K signaling pathways in many cells including T cells and cancer cells Both of these enzymes use the lipid phosphatidylinositol 4 5 bisphosphate PIP2 as their substrate PLCs produce the lipid product diacylglycerol DAG and soluble inositol 1 4 5 trisphosphate IP3 DAG acts as a membrane tether for protein kinase C and RasGRP proteins IP3 is released into the cytosol and controls calcium release from internal stores The PI3K lipid product phosphatidylinositol 3 4 5 trisphosphate PIP3 controls signaling by binding and recruiting effector proteins such as Akt and Itk to cellular membranes Recent research has unveiled important signaling roles for many additional phosphoinositides and other lipids The articles in this volume highlight how multiple different lipids govern T cell development and function through diverse mechanisms and effectors In T cells lipids can orchestrate signaling by organizing membrane topology in rafts or microdomains direct protein function through covalent lipid modification or non covalent lipid binding act as intracellular or extracellular messenger molecules or govern T cell function at the level of metabolic regulation The cellular activity of certain lipid messengers is moreover controlled by soluble counterparts

exemplified by symmetric PIP3 inositol 1 3 4 5 tetrakisphosphate IP4 signaling in developing T cells Not surprisingly lipid producing and metabolizing enzymes have gained attention as potential therapeutic targets for immune disorders leukemias and lymphomas Educart NEET 37 Years Physics Solved Papers (PYQs) Chapterwise and Topicwise for NEET 2025 Exam Educart,Dr. Rakshita Singh,2024-07-25 Artistic Experimentation in Music Darla Crispin,Bob Gilmore,2014-10-07

Immunotherapeutic and Immunoprophylactic Strategies for Infectious Diseases Giuseppe Andrea Sautto,Roberta Antonia Diotti,2020-10-28 The Local Configuration of New Research Fields Martina Merz,Philippe Sormani,2015-10-27 This new Yearbook addresses the question of how policy place and organization are made to matter for a new research field to emerge Bringing together leading historians sociologists and organizational researchers on science and technology the volume answers this question by offering in depth case studies and comparative perspectives on multiple research fields in their nascent stage including molecular biology and materials science nanotechnology and synthetic biology The Yearbook brings to bear the lessons of constructivist ethnography and the practice turn in Science and Technology Studies STS more broadly on the qualitative comparative and critical inquiry of new research fields In doing so it offers unprecedented insights into the complex interplay of national research policies regional clusters particular research institutions and novel research practices in and for any emerging field of techno science It systematically investigates national and regional differences including the variable mobilization of such differences and probes them for organizational topicality and policy relevance

Under the Influence Robert H. Frank, 2021-10-19 From New York Times bestselling author and economics columnist Robert Frank a revelatory look at the power and potential of social context As psychologists have long understood social environments profoundly shape our behavior sometimes for the better but often for the worse Less widely noted is that social influence is a two way street Our environments are in large part themselves a product of the choices we make Society embraces regulations that limit physical harm to others as when smoking restrictions are defended as protecting bystanders from secondhand smoke But we have been slower to endorse parallel steps that discourage harmful social environments as when regulators fail to note that the far greater harm caused when someone becomes a smoker is to make others more likely to smoke In Under the Influence Robert Frank attributes this regulatory asymmetry to the laudable belief that individuals should accept responsibility for their own behavior Yet that belief he argues is fully compatible with public policies that encourage supportive social environments Most parents hope for example that their children won't grow up to become smokers bullies tax cheats sexual predators or problem drinkers But each of these hopes is less likely to be realized whenever such behaviors become more common Such injuries are hard to measure Frank acknowledges but that's no reason for policymakers to ignore them The good news is that a variety of simple policy measures could foster more supportive social environments without ushering in the dreaded nanny state or demanding painful sacrifices from anyone

Page iv of Cover Geographies of Meat Harvey Neo, Jody Emel, 2017-03-16 With the ever rising demand for meat around the world the production of meat has changed dramatically in the past few decades What has brought about the increasing popularity and attendant normalization of factory farms across many parts of the world What are some of the ways to resist such broad convergences in meat production and how successful are they This book locates the answers to these questions at the intersection between the culture science and political economy of meat production and consumption It details how and why techniques of production have spread across the world albeit in a spatially uneven way It argues that the modern meat production and consumption sphere is the outcome of a complex matrix of cultural politics economics and technological faith Drawing from examples across the world including America Europe and Asia the tensions and repercussions of meat production and consumption are also analyzed From a geographical perspective food animals have been given considerably less attention compared to wild animals or pets This book framed conceptually by critical animal studies governmentality and commodification is a theoretically driven and empirically rich study that advances the study of food animals in geography as well as in the wider social sciences
