Suksi, 2021-11-29 The current edition of Human Rights in Development is the fourteenth in the series. Over the years the structure of the yearbook has shifted from that of a journal to a thematic anthology. The theme of this year's volume is Empowerment, Participation, Accountability and Non Discrimination: Operationalising a Human Rights Based Approach to Development. The Human Rights in Development Yearbook series takes its starting point in a development perspective and aims to be topical, comprehensive and multidisciplinary, exemplifying the cross fertilisation of theoretical and practical approaches. Contributions are sought from researchers and practitioners in both recipient and donor countries. To ensure an increased focus on Southern perspectives the editorial group is in a process of enlargement so as to include representatives from recipient countries. Human Rights in Development is the result of a joint research project born out of longstanding cooperation between the following research institutes and centres for human rights: the Christian Michelsen Institute, Bergen; the Danish Institute for Human Rights, Copenhagen; the Icelandic Human Rights Center, Reykjavik; the Ludwig Boltzmann Institute of Human Rights, Vienna; the Netherlands Institute of Human Rights, Utrecht; the Norwegian Centre for Human Rights, Oslo; the Raoul Wallenberg Institute of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law, Lund; and the Åbo Akademi University Institute for Human Rights, Turku. As in previous years the publication is aimed at a broad audience including government agencies, donor agencies, embassies, the press, non governmental organisations and the academic community. Managing water for the poor: proceedings of the Regional Workshop on Pro-Poor Intervention Strategies in Irrigated Agriculture in Asia, Bangladesh, China, India, Indonesia, Pakistan and Vietnam, Colombo, 9-10 August 2001. Hussain, I., Biltonen,

Contributed articles presented at the Workshop. Increasing the Contribution of Small-scale Fisheries to Poverty Alleviation and Food Security Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2005-01-01. Most small scale fisheries are in developing countries and many live in poor and food insecure communities. These guidelines consider how small scale fisheries can contribute to poverty alleviation and food security and complement existing technical guidelines on sustainable fisheries. Issues discussed include participation by small scale fishers and their communities in development of policy and regulation measures as well as in management decision making and implementation processes; cross sectoral uses of fisheries and related resources; the special role of women in fish marketing, processing and value addition; the significant scope for trade financing; information research and communication aspects. Framing African Development, 2015-09-29. This book discusses and challenges concepts that are widely used in research and policy related to development issues in Africa. The main rationale for such an undertaking is that the concepts that are used to understand and define the world in general and Africa in particular are not merely describing social, economic and political processes and events they are also largely framing these very same processes Thus the concepts by which we structure the world will implicitly or explicitly give premises for policies and practices limiting or favouring certain types of actions and frameworks of interpretation and understanding in various contexts It is therefore important to challenge commonly held conceptions about framing African development Contributors include Deborah Fahy Bryceson Rosalind Eyben Amanda Hammar Kjell Havnevik Mats H rsmar Terje Oestigaard and Rune Skarstein
