Downtown Juárez Howard Campbell,2021-11-09 At least 200 000 people have died in Mexico s so called drug war and the worst suffering has been in Ciudad Ju rez across the border from El Paso Texas How did it get so bad After three decades studying that question Howard Campbell doesn t believe there is any one answer Misguided policies corruption criminality and the borderland economy are all factors But none explains how violence in downtown Ju rez has become heartbreakingly normal A rigorous yet moving account Downtown Ju rez is informed by the sex workers addicts hustlers bar owners human smugglers migrants and down and out workers struggling to survive in an underworld where horrifying abuses have come to seem like the natural way of things Even as Ju rez s elite northeast section thrives on the profits of multinational corporations and law abiding citizens across the city mobilize against crime and official malfeasance downtown s cantinas barrios and brothels are tyrannized by misery Campbell s is a chilling perspective suggesting that over time violent acts feed off each other losing their connection to any specific cause Downtown Ju rez documents this banality of evil and confronts it with the stories of those most affected Texas A.
