Accessibility Malcolm J. Moseley, 2023-07-28 Originally published in 1979, this book discusses the problem faced by planners, county councils, transport, health, and education authorities, as well as the inhabitants of rural Britain, of the inaccessibility of many areas of the UK. For certain sections of society, such as the less well-off children and teenagers and the elderly, the impact is felt most strongly when local shops, schools, and medical services are withdrawn in favour of larger units in distant towns. The book reviews the process of decline which led to this situation and considers the concept of accessibility to show how it can be developed into an analytical tool for measuring the success or failure of alternative policies. Each policy option is discussed in detail: the support of conventional bus or other transport services, the provision of mobile services, mini-outlet policies, and the long-term restructuring of the rural settlement pattern.

Tropical and sub-tropical West Africa - Marine and continental changes during the Late Quaternary P. Giresse, 2007-11-30 West Africa and the eastern Atlantic, stretching from Mauritania in the north to Namibia in the south, offer a large latitudinal stretch incorporating nearly symmetrical climatic gradients from the Equator. On the time scale of Quaternary Glacial and Interglacial cycles today, we possess well documented and recently published marine sedimentary records showing changes in oceanic and atmospheric circulations and terrestrial fluxes Deep sea sediment records contain a wide range of palaeoenvironmental indicators like oxygen and carbon isotopes alkenones foraminiferal and other planktonic assemblages over time periods up to and greater than 125 000 years These are signals of temperature and circulation shifts and allow Interglacial and Glacial comparisons on a regional and inter hemispheric scale However this effort to synthesize the existing knowledge cannot yet aspire to a global modelling Linking with terrestrial records albeit spatially patchy and generally lacking a firm chronology this book points to shorter time scale chronologies from lakes marshes and river deposits Diverse and not very wellknown literature both French and English is reported here Lastly the book records recent knowledge of the first steps of human occupation of frequently hostile environments and considers the environmental impact of ancient and modern societies Covers the recent studies about marine Quaternary environments off West Africa as well as continental Quaternary environments of tropical and sub tropical West Africa over 10 000 to 100 000 years Compares the parallel between palaeoenvironmental trends according to latitudinal gradients
