

The background of the entire image features a dark blue field with various financial data visualizations. On the left, there are glowing blue pie charts and line graphs with red and blue markers. On the right, a smaller portrait of a smiling man with short brown hair, wearing a dark blazer over a light blue shirt, is positioned in the upper right corner. The main title and subtitle are in the upper center, and the main topic is in a large white triangle in the center. The interviewee's name is in the bottom right.

Investing in Low-Carbon Energy Systems Venkatachalam Anbumozhi, Kaliappa Kalirajan, Fukunari Kimura, Xianbin Yao, 2016-09-22 This book focuses on multi level actions that have attracted considerable interest and discussion within academia decision makers and the public as a tool to assess anthropogenic effects of low carbon energy development The book begins with an overview of the state of the art policies in emerging economies which provides a starting point for understanding the concept of low carbon green growth A unified framework for structuring categorizing and integrating various regional level actions is established on the basis of a thorough investigation into the theoretical and methodological aspects of non conventional energy policies that have been widely adopted Furthermore the book brings clarity to the relationship between clean energy policies and stakeholder participation and the significance of coordinated actions at the regional level The findings provide novel insights and policy tools to help decision makers in identifying ways to mobilize private investment in low carbon energy systems

Global Trends in Real Estate Finance Graeme Newell, Karen Sieracki, 2009-10-08 To operate effectively in today's dynamic global real estate markets it is essential to understand the complex processes that underpin them This up to date work which brings together contributions from industry and academic experts from around the world is a valuable corollary to effective investment decision making within the property sector and will be of interest to post graduate property students researchers and practising real estate investors Recent years have seen some rapid developments in the global scale and structure of real estate markets Such transformations have been paralleled by significant changes in the financial structures and processes that serve these markets including sophisticated new investment and finance structures and products Examples of these include the real estate investment trusts REIT products that have been developed in USA Europe and Asia the range of unlisted products emerging in UK and Europe and the innovative financing structures being developed in many countries Global Trends in Real Estate Finance addresses this emerging complexity and sophistication in contemporary real estate markets by discussing the history merits and implications of a range of products and processes Also examined are the changes in the practices and environment needed to ensure the success of these property products including increased disclosure corporate governance market transparency and improved skills base Chapters are written by leading international contributors both academic and practitioner The context is explicitly international with a focus on UK Europe Asia Australia and the USA The aim is to identify specific market areas to describe the key innovations rather than simply providing a description of various geographical markets
