Biggest change: the latest introduction of the 100% rule. The 100% rule requires that all of the company's income be paid out to the shareholders. This is a major change from the previous rule, which allowed the company to retain up to 10% of its income for reinvestment.

As a general rule, to make someone (including all agents) believe the description exp of the exp-world, he/she must believe all the events relevant to determining all agents' intentions that are listed. This is why this principle is the best strategy to use the condition without using the action.
