Guadalcanal a young American airman was lost in heavy weather over the South Pacific on what was expected to be a routine flight In examining that loss and the events leading up to a rescue attempt on an island in the South Pacific and bringing together societies utterly alien to each other Survival in the South Pacific brings together the big themes of the Pacific War Lieutenant Leonard Richardson and his comrades had been swept from their homes across America trained at speed for war and dispatched to one of the remotest places on the globe American war plans in place when Pearl Harbor was attacked poorly reflected the capabilities of its military and the limits imposed by America s far flung and indefensible territories The Germany First policy had resulted in a deeply uncertain future for forces in the South Pacific and Australia the United States was unprepared for the global war that came to it in late 1941 even as the pipeline of men and materiel began to fill Young Allied and Japanese aviators sailors and soldiers were not the only ones thrown into the swirling maelstrom of war that had engulfed the Pacific the indigenous islanders were also immersed in a new reality In bringing together individual stories of men at war this book gives a new perspective on the Pacific War Special Studies Military History Center,1994
