Restricted Access Elizabeth Ellcessor, 2016-03-29 How reconsidering digital media and participatory cultures from the standpoint of disability allows for a full understanding of accessibility While digital media can offer many opportunities for civic and cultural participation this technology is not equally easy for everyone to use Hardware software and cultural expectations combine to make some technologies an easier fit for some bodies than for others A YouTube video without closed captions or a social network site that is incompatible with a screen reader can restrict the access of users who are hard of hearing or visually impaired Often people with disabilities require accommodation assistive technologies or other forms of aid to make digital media accessible useable for them Restricted Access investigates digital media accessibility the processes by which media is made usable by people with particular needs and argues for the necessity of conceptualizing access in a way that will enable greater participation in all forms of mediated culture Drawing on disability and cultural studies Elizabeth Ellcessor uses an interrogatory framework based around issues of regulation use content form and experience to examine contemporary digital media Through interviews with policy makers and accessibility professionals popular culture and archival materials and an ethnographic study of internet use by people with disabilities Ellcessor reveals the assumptions that undergird contemporary technologies and participatory cultures Restricted Access makes the crucial point that if digital media open up opportunities for individuals to create and participate but that technology only facilitates the participation of those who are already privileged then its progressive potential remains unrealized Engagingly written with powerful examples Ellcessor demonstrates the importance of alternate uses marginalized voices and invisible innovations in the context of disability identities to push us to rethink digital media accessibility Z.E.R.O. Joseph Jaffe, Maarten Albarda, 2013-10-07 The world has changed Everyone keeps reminding marketers and advertisers about the never ending and accelerating forces of technology disruption consumer changes and innovation evolution in the marketing world today Sounds exciting except for the fact that we re doing absolutely nothing about it Zero Simply put under current operating conditions the advertising industry will not be able to sustain itself and without taking action is likely to result in severe to catastrophic outcomes from financial underperformance to job loss to even a collapse of the current media ecosystem The solution The Marketing Model can be fixed by slashing your ad budget and investing in the Z E R O framework Zealots Entrepreneurship Retention Owned Assets The Business Model Navigator Oliver Gassmann, Karolin Frankenberger, Michaela Choudury, Michaela Csik, 2020-08-12 A strong business model is the bedrock to business success But all too often we fail to adapt clinging to outdated business models that are no longer promising the results we need This new edition builds on the well known methodology of the first edition to allow you to innovate test and implement new business models within your industry Discover the idea of business model innovation from structuring the process of innovation of a company s business model to encouraging outside the box thinking With expert authors The Business Model Navigator combines learning research with evidence of high practical impact allowing you to master the transformation journey and lead your business to success Cruising the Queensland Coast: Third Edition Greg Luck, 2023-11-22 Cruising the Queensland Coast is a cruising guide for yachts cruising the Queensland coast Each of the 13 coasts from the Gold Coast to the Cooktown Coast is covered in detail including marinas anchorages passages wind and wave averages public pontoons and quick reference information and links for vital weather search and rescue notices to mariners and other vital information It features hundreds of chartlets and high resolution aerial photos of anchorages to take the guesswork out of anchoring Each anchorage has information on depth bottom mobile reception marine park zone and recommended wind directions and strengths The book is also integrated with Navionics and C Map Anchorages and passages can be imported into Navionics and C Map via GPX link icons throughout the book The book also provides an extensive reference of useful information for the Queensland Coast such as skills and experience recommended apps charts and books equipping the yacht for cruising
