America The Wanted My Short Passions:

An American Passion Len Blanchard, 2001-09 An historical narrative of epic scope An American Passion is a story of adventure political intrigue war and romance set on the Northern Plains during the last several decades of the Nineteenth Century While faithfully adhering to the sketchy and often contradictory historical record the epic offers a vivid imaginatively realized account of the life of the mysterious Crazy Horse legendary war chief of the Lakota Sioux A man who typically let his actions do his speaking for him and who died young assassinated at the hands of the U S Government in his mid thirties Crazy Horse s story is related by five different narrators An American Passion opens with a prologue spoken by the Missouri River the mighty river of the Great Plains With the historical context established Crazy Horse s life from his birth to his death little more than a year following his great victory over George Armstrong Custer at the Little Big Horn is related retrospectively by his grieving father Worm a notable medicine man of the tribe The next major section of the epic is narrated by the woman for whom Crazy Horse risked his life and the welfare of his people Black Buffalo Woman s tale is a tragedy in the vein of Romeo and Juliet s Unlike the story of Shakespeare s fallen lovers however the love story of Crazy Horse and Black Buffalo Woman has never been related in its full gripping complexity as it is in An American Passion Amazingly after his nearly fatal attempt to take Black Buffalo Woman as his wife Crazy Horse went on to marry and the third major narration of An American Passion is that of Black Shawl his fiercely loyal and devoted widow and the mother of his only known child Telling her story at about the time Sitting Bull was returning to the reservation after having been released from prison by the U S Government a bitter but not a hopeless woman Black Shawl focuses on the early death of her daughter by Crazy Horse and on her final days in captivity with Crazy Horse The epic concludes with the account of He Dog a loyal friend of Crazy Horse having fought beside him throughout his days as the greatest warrior among the Sioux He Dog lived to be nearly a hundred years old and served as a respected judge in the Indian courts on the reservation Told from the vantage point of 1910 some 33 years after the killing of Crazy Horse He Dog s narration is largely a tribute to his friend a consideration of the differences in character and temperament between himself and Crazy Horse and an elegy to what might have been and perhaps may some day yet be In the depth and breadth of its portrayal of major figures in Crazy Horse s life who are little more than footnotes in the historical record and in the insight it offers into the heart and mind of a great and complicated man a man who lived and died ultimately as an enigma even to the people who revered and revere him An American Passion is a unique emotionally engaging account of the final days of the resistance of the Native Americans of the Northern Plains to that juggernaut of forces which having achieved its objective destroyed a culture though not a people Igniting Prayer's Passion and Power in Us Dr Walter Brown Jr, 2001-12-11 Walter M Brown Jr has accomplished something extraordinary in this fine book He brings into sharp focus the nexus between fervent and prayer and evocative preaching set within the rich linguistic and poetic world of African American spirituality Robert M Franklin Ph D Former President Interdenominational

Theological Center The premise used in Igniting Prayer s Passion and Power In Us has produced extraordinary chapel growth experienced by only one half of 1% of this nation s churches Brown s theological studies at the Interdenominational Theological Center Master of Divinity Emory University Master of Theology and Columbia Theological Seminary Doctor of Ministry helped form the bases for this stirring approach to proclamation This unique method of preparation is sure to develop a new appreciation for and devotion to prayer Simple and effective Igniting Prayer s Passion and Power In Us will revolutionize sermon preparation All Christians can glean helpful insight into improving their prayer life Workbook Study Guide available at Wmalolm aol com

Passion for Excellence Haralampos M. Moutsopoulos, 2025-02-01 This book chronicles the life and career of Haralampos M Moutsopoulos an internationally renowned professor of medicine and prolific researcher on Sj gren s syndrome and autoimmune rheumatic diseases In language that is simple and direct he takes us on a fascinating journey from the days of his first scientific awakenings at a hospital in his native town of Ioannina Greece through his university years in Athens and training in the US to his eventual return to his homeland In Greece he developed two centers of excellence in his field first at the newly founded University of Ioannina Medical School Department of Internal Medicine and second at the Athens University Medical School Department of Pathophysiology where he taught until his retirement in 2011 A major theme throughout the book and especially in this second edition is his impassioned struggle for excellence meritocracy and transparency in universities and in the National Health System in Greece This battle is relentless especially during critical periods like the pandemic era where human life was seriously threatened by the coronavirus and scientific community had to develop and pionner novel therapeutic approaches and bold administrative solutions Peppered with both amusing and unsettling incidents from this lifelong crusade to raise professional standards and against misconduct the book is a must read for anyone interested in learning about or entering the medical profession as well as for those whose goal is to lead an adventurous passionate life free from fear prejudice and mediocrity

The Best Kind of College Susan McWilliams,John

E. Seery, 2015-07-06 The fevered controversy over America's educational future isn't simply academic: those who have proposed sweeping reforms include government officials, politicians, foundation officers, think tank researchers, journalists, media pundits, and university administrators. Drowned out in that noisy debate are the voices of those who actually teach the liberal arts exclusively to undergraduates in our nation's small liberal arts colleges or SLACs. The Best Kind of College attempts to rectify that glaring oversight. As an insiders' guide to the liberal arts in its truest form, the volume brings together thirty award-winning professors from across the country to convey in various ways some of the virtues, the electricity, and overall the importance of the small seminar face-to-face approach to education as typically featured in SLACs. Before we in the United States abandon or compromise our commitment to the liberal arts, oddly enough, precisely at a time when our global competitors are discovering, emulating, and founding American-style SLACs and new liberal arts programs, we need a wake-up call, namely to the fact that the nation's SLACs provide a time-tested model of educational integrity and success.

The Passion Trap: How to Right an Unbalanced Relationship Dean C. Delis, 2015-09-02 Who gets caught in the Passion Trap? It's the catch-22 of romantic relationships: The more deeply one partner falls in love, the more distant the other becomes. This is the passion trap, an emotional dynamic that results in increasing desire and desperation in the one down, lover and dissatisfaction often mingled with guilt and withdrawal in the one up. Now Dr. Dean Delis, a renowned psychologist who believes the passion trap is both common and curable, shows you how to change the patterns that threaten your relationship. Drawing from his counseling work with individuals and couples, he offers fresh insights and powerful, proven techniques from Trial Closeness to Healthy Distance to help you and your partner rekindle romance and discover a new equilibrium of love and desire for a lifetime of happiness. Passion, Shame, and the Freedom to Become Peter Shabad, 2024-12-09 This book examines how humans can overcome feelings of shame through self-acceptance and regain their innate passion and freedom to grow. Peter Shabad examines in detail how self-shaming and passivity are intertwined with the fatalism of self-pity, envy, resentment, and ultimately regret for not seizing the vital moments in life. From birth on, children attempt to contribute to the human endeavor through their innate passion. Parental receptivity enables a child to plant seeds of belonging, inspiring the generative passion necessary for furthering development. Exposed vulnerability due to the lack of receptivity leads to feelings of shame and self-consciousness. As human beings, we interpret our misfortunes and limitations as punishments and reverse our passion into an inhibited passivity. Shabad envisions psychotherapy as a pathway through which individuals learn to inclusively accept all aspects of their inner lives in order to embark on their journey of self-acceptance. He emphasizes the need for therapists to view patients as active agents in this process. This book is a must-read for psychoanalysts, psychotherapists, and anyone interested in developing a deeper understanding of the dynamics of shame and passion in our lives.
