School Bulletin Minneapolis Public Schools. Board of Education, 1925 Bulletin, 1932 The School Journal, 1898 Training Little Children Charles Riborg Mann, Floyd Marion McDowell, John Haywood Francis, Lorne Webster Barclay, Peter Henry Pearson, Sheldon Emmor Davis, Theresa Bach, Thomas Jesse Jones, United States. Office of Education, Walter Alexander Montgomery, 1920 George Washington Jones Ronald Runge, 2005-03 The West is symbolized by America's romance with the cowboy rancher. We admire his independence and reliance on his own skills and abilities. This historical novel depicts those settlers of the Wild West whose calming influence on the calamities indigenous to that area led to our modern day ranchers. The adventures of the Jones family who in the late 1940s find themselves the owners of a horse ranch in Wyoming's hard bitten arid and unforgiving ranch country and how they cope with the problems and the joys of operating a ranch is the gist of this book. Their success is based on a mother lode of can-do training and a respect for their Christian heritage morality. They create an economically viable ranch from the sand and rock of Wyoming's federal range but their livelihood is endangered not by the gunslinger but by the American bureaucracy. The book poses the question would an American government willfully destroy the free enterprise ranching segment of American society like the Jones ranch because it does not fit in with the plans of an environmentalist controlled Secretary of the Interior. It is a David and Goliath story depicting America's use of federal storm troopers and an unlimited quantity of power and money in removing our Wyoming ranchers from their way of life Social Studies for Secondary Schools Alan J. Singer, 2008-10-26 This popular text advocates an inquiry and activity based view of social studies teaching that respects the points of view of students and teachers. Based in practice and experience it offers systematic support and open honest advice for new teachers. It is conversational not pedantic and provides lots of examples. While the structure and most of the topics remain largely the same as before this Third Edition presents new lesson ideas in every chapter especially designed to help new teachers to address learning standards to work in inclusive settings and to promote literacy and the use of technology in social studies classrooms. It puts a heavier focus on what is important to know and why includes new essays on the politics of social studies education responds to opponents of project or activity based social studies instruction and multicultural education with a sharpened defense of both of these approaches throughout the book. Intended as a text for undergraduate and graduate pre-service social studies methods courses this text is also useful for in-service training programs as a reference for new social studies teachers and as a resource for experienced social studies educators who are engaged in rethinking their teaching practice Natural Science Teaching in Great Britain Arthur Jay Klein, Glen Levin Swiggett, John Dorsey Wolcott, Mary Burchard Orvis, Peter Henry Pearson, United States.
