Mama James Golden, 2017-11-27 James now retired and living in Las Vegas gets word that Mama is ill He had to make a decision to either stay in his retirement home or give it up to go back to New York and take care of her The decision was not as hard as he thought it would be he was going home James had always been in conflict with his mother He never understood why she was always sending him away from her Over time he came to believe that it was that she didn't love him as she did his other brothers and sisters. The time spent with her would be the most rewarding and well spent time of his life. The bond they had built, the questions answered and the newfound love and respect he gained for her have made him a new man and the trust she had in God was passed on to him. This is a story about a son who spent nine years taking care of his mother and the bond that was created through that period.

Reflections of Fear Richard J. Johnson, 2003 Reflections of Fear recounts the devastating effects a rather grotesque antique wall mirror has on Paul Jason and his wife Cindy. Caught up in a maze of intrigue and sheer terror after acquiring the mirror, the lives of this young couple soon take a decided turn for the worse. With the help of Cindy's sister and brother-in-law, the four are unwittingly drawn into a frightening and macabre doorway into another world, the world of the dead commonly referred to as Purgatory. Three decades earlier, a greedy and treacherous character had invaded the lives of Minnie and Melvin Link, the original owners of the mirror. Unexpectedly granted a supernatural power over the Jasons' minds, Minnie attempts to communicate her desperate plight to them with terrifying and unforeseen consequences. Reflections of Fear is a tale of terror involving a desperate attempt to find justice for the victims of an unsolved thirty-year-old murder. The characters depicted in the story are both realistic and unforgettable. This is one book that you will find very hard to put down.
