Aid Macroeconomic Stability:

The Macroeconomics of Managing Increased Aid Inflows - Experiences of Low-Income Countries and Policy Implications International Monetary Fund. Policy Development and Review Dept., International Monetary Fund. Strategy, Policy, & Review Department, 2005-08-08 Investigates the macroeconomic challenges for low income countries created by a surge in aid inflows It develops an analytical framework for examining possible policy responses to increased aid and then applies this framework to the experience of five relatively well governed countries that experienced a recent surge in aid inflows Ethiopia Ghana Mozambique Tanzania and Uganda Each country s policies were supported by a PRGF arrangement during most of the period under review The Macroeconomics of Scaling-up Aid International Working Group of Sovereign Wealth Funds, International Monetary Fund. African Dept., 2008-09-19 In September 2007 the UN Secretary General launched the Millennium Development Goals MDG Africa Steering and Working Groups The Steering Group brings together the leaders of multilateral institutions to identify practical steps needed for Africa to achieve the MDGs The Managing Director of the IMF is a member of the Steering Group The Working Group supports the Steering Group and is comprised of thematic groups in education agriculture health infrastructure and trade facilitation statistics aid predictability and MDG operationalization at the country level The following three notes assess the macroeconomic implications of the spending of scaled up aid to Benin Niger and Togo in line with that promised by the G 8 at Gleneagles Scotland in 2005 The IMF and Aid to Sub-Saharan Africa International Monetary Fund. Independent Evaluation Office, 2007-04-13 This independent evaluation of the IMF s role and performance in the determination and use of aid to low income countries in sub Saharan Africa is presented at a ground level view Country performance has improved in many sub Saharan Africa countries over the period and the report details the role of the IMF s programs as well as perceptions of that role The report is an important contribution to following through on the IMF s commitment to its Poverty Reduction Strategy and makes three main recommendations for improving the coherence actual and perceived of the IMF s policies and actions relating to aid to sub Saharan Africa going forward Foreign Aid in Africa Jerker Carlsson, Gloria Somolekae, Nicolas Van de Walle, 1997 This volume reports on the findings of an international research project on aid effectiveness in Africa The Role of the Fund in the Poverty Reduction Strategy Process and Its Collaboration with Donors International Monetary Fund, 2007-09-21 This paper proposes an approach to making the MTS operational as it relates to the Fund s work in LICs that would define more precisely the Fund s responsibility and accountability in the PRSP and donor collaboration processes The proposed activities are not new but represent an intensification of existing work and its extension to the all LICs as appropriate This would help clarify expectations as to the Fund s role and establish a consistent institutional approach to collaborating with donors and other stakeholders on the ground Budget Support as More Effective Aid? Stefan Koeberle, Zoran Stavreski, Jan Walliser, 2006-01-01 Budget support has become an increasingly important instrument in the context of a partnership based approach to development assistance Compared to traditional modes of aid delivery it promises greater country ownership reduced transaction costs better donor coordination scaling up of poverty reduction and potentially greater development effectiveness This book presents a timely and valuable review of key concepts issues experiences and emerging lessons relevant to budget support It provides an overview of principal characteristics expectations and concerns related to budget support key design and implementation issues as well as some practical experiences The contributors include government representatives from developing countries leading academic scholars bilateral development agencies and development practitioners from international financial institutions including the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund They present a wide range of views on key issues such as the choice of instruments alignment of budget support with country programs predictability and coordination and conditionality The authors draw their insightful analysis on the contemporary research and evaluation work as well as the broad practical experience with budget support This book will be of great interest to practitioners in aid recipient countries and international financial institutions bilateral agencies and civil organizations involved in budget support

Postconflict Economics in Sub-Saharan Africa, Lessons from the Democratic Republic of the Congo Mr. Jean A. P. Clément, 2005-02-07 The Democratic Republic of the Congo is making significant strides on both the political and economic fronts to extricate itself from one of the bloodiest wars in African history This remarkable turnaround offers other countries and the international community valuable lessons in preventing conflict and in coping with postconflict recovery This book also provides a summary of the most recent research on conflict an analysis of the causes of conflicts in Africa and an outline of their key economic characteristics Working Together to Make Aid More Effective Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. International Development Committee, 2008 Working together to make aid more Effective Ninth report of session 2007-08 Vol 2 Oral and written Evidence Aid for Trade: Global and Regional Perspectives Philippe Lombaerde, Lakshmi Puri, 2009-02-03 Aid for Trade Aft has become a major item on the international trade and development discourse This is to a large extent in response to concerns expressed by developing countries and economies in transition with regard to their capacities to implement trade agreements especially WTO agreements and undertake necessary adjustments to increase net development gains from emerging trade opportunities In this World Report major UN agencies active in development cooperation and longstanding providers of trade related technical assistance and capacity building discuss ways to sustain the momentum towards the operationalization and implementation of the Aft initiative and the supportive role to be played by the UN system This is consistent with UN's role in promoting development and helping to achieve poverty reduction as committed in the Millennium Declaration and the 2005 World Summit Outcome The Report should be of particular interest to government officials officials of regional organizations representatives of the private sector dealing with trade agreements and negotiations civil society and academia Supachai Panitchpakdi Secretary General of UNCTAD Lakshmi Puri is Acting Deputy Secretary General and Director of the

Division on International Trade and Services and Commodities at UNCTAD in Geneva Philippe De Lombaerde is Associate Director of United Nations University UNU CRIS in Bruges In collaboration with UNCTAD ECA ECLAC ESCAP ESCWA UNECE UNIDO UNDP UNEP The Macroeconomics of Aid Howard White,1994 Parliaments as Peacebuilders in Conflict-affected Countries Mitchell O'Brien,Rick Stapenhurst,Niall Johnston,2008-01-01 The changing nature of conflict and the increase in intrastate conflict during the 1990s followed by its slow decline since the turn of the century have led to changing priorities in the field of conflict resolution No longer is the international community solely concerned with resolving existing conflicts it also is managing emerging conflicts to ensure that they do not flare into violent conflict This book outlines some of the strategies parliaments and parliamentarians can adopt to reduce the incidence of conflict and effectively manage conflict when it does emerge It is hoped that by The Politics of African Industrial Policy Lindsay Whitfield,Ole Therkildsen,Lars Buur,Anne Mette Kjær,2015-07-02 This book engages in the debate on growth versus economic transformation and the importance of industrial policy presenting a comprehensive framework for explaining the politics of industrial policy Using comparative research to theorize about the politics of industrial policy in countries in the early stages of capitalist transformation that also experience the pressures of elections due to democratization this book provides four in depth African country studies that illustrate the challenges to economic transformation and the politics of implementing industrial policies Foreign Aid, Debt, and Growth in Zambia Per-Åke Andersson,Arne Bigsten,Håkan Persson,2000 A study which discusses the structural problems in Zambia and the policies of adjustment that have been tried It also analyses the impact of various strategies with regard to external resource transfers The results show that the scope for growth is highly dependent on the tightness of the external resource constraint and that debt service tends to dominate the policy making Uganda's Economic Reforms Florence Kuteesa,2010 This book represents the first consolidated account of the economic reforms undertaken by the Uganda government and their impact on growth and poverty reduction and includes contributions from those directly involved in the implementation of those reforms The Macroeconomics of Scaling Up Aid Mr.Andrew Berg,International Monetary Fund,2007-03-23 This study analyzes key issues associated with large increases in aid including absorptive capacity Dutch disease and inflation The authors develop a framework that emphasizes the different roles of monetary and fiscal policy and apply it to the recent experience of five countries Ethiopia Ghana Mozambique Tanzania and Uganda These countries have often found it difficult to coordinate monetary and fiscal policy in the face of conflicting objectives notably to spend the aid money on domestic goods and to avoid excessive exchange rate appreciation Fiscal Space Rathin Roy,Antoine Heuty,2012-05-31 With the deadline for achieving the 2015 Millennium Development Goals MDGs less than a decade away the uneven progress is raising important questions about the ability of the international community to scale up its efforts to finance the goals Securing adequate financing for development has thus become the most pressing issue of the development agenda This groundbreaking volume by leading development

economists and practitioners addresses the central concern for policymakers involved in long term planning for the MDGs how to create fiscal space for the MDGs and strengthen domestic resource mobilization for human development while ensuring long term sustainability and freedom from reliance on aid By looking at the evidence with fresh perspectives the authors present a novel approach by which fiscal policy can be made to work for the poor for the long term Published with UNDP and Revenue Watch Post-Stabilization Economics in Sub-Saharan Africa Mr. Shanaka J. Peiris, Mr. Jean A. P. Clément, 2008-05-01 Mozambique is an economic success story in sub Saharan Africa SSA Its remarkable achievements offer valuable lessons to other low income countries in a post stabilization economic phase including how they can efficiently manage a scaling up of foreign aid aimed at poverty reduction Of special interest to other sub Saharan countries are the book s discussions of Mozambique s progress toward consolidating macroeconomic and financial stability and the challenges it faces in ensuring long term sustainability creating a virtuous cycle of natural resource use and implementing second generation structural reforms to sustain its growth This book also provides a summary of the most recent research on issues related to post stabilization economics in SSA The Economic Prospects of the CIS Gur Ofer, Richard W. T. Pomfret, 2004-01-01 This useful volume features surveys of 10 of the 12 members of the Commonwealth of Independent States CIS the successor organisation to the USSR I heartily recommend this book for all economists interested in the economic transition of the CIS Roy Gardner Comparative Economic Studies The country studies and the editors introduction contain a wealth of statistical information that will be appreciated by many readers Those interested in a broad overview will focus on the introduction and the conclusion where the editors offer their synthesis of the ten country studies This synthesis in itself is an important achievement that summarizes the wealth of country findings in a compact and easily readable format Those who need more detail will greatly benefit from the in depth treatment of the ten countries in the core chapters The high level of scholarship of this volume ensures its usefulness not only to academics and researchers specializing in transition but also to development and comparative economists working on issues of economic growth The specific country studies will be of value to economists assigned to the region by international organizations or to local economists interested to have a western perspective on developments in their countries In summary this is an important addition to the literature that summarizes the record of transition during the decade of the 1990s Zvi Lerman Slavic Review This book is to be commended for several reasons First of all it makes predominantly native research available to English speakers Secondly it has managed to provide separate chapters for as many as ten of the twelve members of the Commonwealth of Independent States and has not allowed its treatment of Russia to dominate the discussion Thirdly its approach to the theme of economic prospects is both country oriented and comparative And finally it fulfills its remit in considering the future as well as the present W V Wallace Slavonic and East European Review Professors Gur Ofer and Richard Pomfret have created a volume in which timely and lucid combination of analyses extensive information and clear cut knowledge of what went wide of the mark during the 1990s in the Soviet bloc are all well presented They offer economic and institutional analyses to help understand alternative routes to economic growth in the CIS Bruno S Sergi Economics of Transition This first comprehensive application of the new growth accounting to systemic transition in ten ex Soviet republics puts weak governance public and corporate and capital paucity as the key retardants to market led dynamism today The country specific analyses embedded in a rich description of resource demographic and political environments shows that these economies as yet little touched by globalisation need to build institutions qualitatively attractive to FDI and to technology transfer if their catch up rate is to satisfy the aspirations of their still poverty racked peoples Michael Kaser St Antony s College Oxford UK This book brings together ten original studies on the transition and growth experience and the foundations for long term growth of the newly independent states created by the dissolution of the Soviet Union Beginning with an overview of the common pre 1992 background and comparative information on the post 1992 performance of the Commonwealth of Independent States CIS countries the authors continue by reviewing the Soviet background and post independence experience They then emphasise both the uniformity and diversity of the twelve CIS countries recent history The problem of explaining economic growth in transition economies is also explored and individual in depth country studies are presented The contributors to the book are a combination of in country researchers with in depth local knowledge and access to data and international economists with technical expertise and experience of long ter

Remaining Government responses session 2004-05 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee,2007-11-02 The Government is expected to respond to all reports from the Committee within two months of publication The Committee then makes them available to the House and publishes them as required This report makes 35 such responses available
