

America Secedes from the Empire

- Congress Drafts George Washington
 - After the bloodshed at Lexington and Concord in April of 1775, about 20,000 Minutemen swarmed around Boston, where they outnumbered the British.
 - The Second Continental Congress met in Philadelphia on May 10, 1775, with no real intention of independence, but merely a desire to continue fighting in the hope that the king and Parliament would consent to a redress of grievances.
 - It sent another list of grievances to Parliament.
 - It also adopted measures to raise money for an army and a navy.
 - It also selected _____ to command the army (probably the most important action of the Second Continental Congress).
 - Washington had never risen above the rank of colonel, and his largest command had only been of 1,200 men, but he was a tall figure who looked like a leader, and thus, was a morale boost to troops.
 - He radiated patience, courage, self-discipline, and a sense of justice, and though he insisted on working without pay, he did keep a careful expense account amounting to more than $100,000.
- Bunker Hill and Hessian Hirelings
 - In May 1775, a tiny American force called the Green Mountain Boys, led by Ethan Allen and _____, surprised and captured the British garrisons at Forts Ticonderoga and Crown Point.
 - The importance of this raid lay in the fact that they captured much-needed cannons and gunpowder.
 - In June 1775, the colonials seized Bunker Hill (prior known as Breed's Hill).
 - Instead of flanking them, the Redcoats launched a frontal attack, and the heavily entrenched colonial sharpshooters mowed them down until meager gunpowder supplies ran out and they were forced to retreat.
 - In July, 1775, the Continental Congress adopted the "Olive Branch Petition," professing American loyalty to the crown and begging the king to prevent further hostilities.
 - After Bunker Hill, George III slammed the door for all hope of reconciliation and declared the colonies to be in open rebellion, a treasonous affair.
 - The king also hired many German mercenaries, called _____, who, because they were lured by gold and not duty, had large numbers desert and remained in America to become respectful citizens.
 - Colonists considered the use of European mercenaries a complete shock that the British would enlist outsiders in a "family quarrel".
- The Abortive Conquest of Canada
 - The colonists decided that invading _____ would add a 14th colony and deprive Britain of a valuable base for striking at the colonies in revolt.
 - This contradicted the colonials' claim that they were merely fighting defensively for a redress of grievances.
