

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space weapons and launch them?	That U.S. suspend the prohibition of launching nuclear weapons.	Not really.
2. Would anyone benefit from the launch and deployment of such weapons?	They would certainly produce advantages that were worth the costs of building, launching, and maintaining them.	Only if the weapons were used to destroy the U.S. launch bases or launch vehicles, planned orbits or content of launched weapons. Probably not.
3. Would anyone disagree with this?	Not really.	Some might disagree with the prohibition on the launching.
4. Would the two nations agree to such limits on their activity?	Yes, the governments had agreed to limit the launching activity.	Yes, because public use of weapons was much less likely than the Soviet launching.

2. Suppose the agreement simply set the following conditions:

• The United States would not launch.

• The Soviet Union would not launch.

• The United States would not launch.

• The Soviet Union would not launch.
