Exercise 4 (page 3) LISTENING 2 (page 3)

1. Terry: I love going out with my friends. Terry: He always pays for everybody. He just enjoys spending money! He's so different from his brother. That's my dad of course! The only problem with Harry is that he can be rather impolite. He isn't very sensitive and doesn't wait before he speaks. The other day he really upset my dad when he told him he was mean.
 2. Julie: My mum's amazing, really. She never loses her temper, she just stays really calm. She's got four children. I'm, my brother and my two sisters and that's all who do things but my mum's before we actually do them - but she doesn't get angry. She also works full time at the supermarket and doesn't get home till 10 o'clock. I don't know how she fits it all in. She never stops?
 3. Maria: My sister and I have completely different personalities. I like meeting new people and am happy to chat to people. I don't know - at parties, for example. But Sonia's a bit nervous in situations like that. She waits for people to come to her. But when she gets to know you and starts talking she really makes you laugh.
 4. Teresa: We're twins, but we aren't identical. We don't look alike, and our personalities aren't alike, either. For example, I don't say very much, normally I'm fairly quiet. Louise is the complete opposite. She never stops! But she doesn't talk about herself. Just to me - for example she got fantastic marks in her exams but you never hear her talking about it.
- 1 generous, rude 2 patient, hard-working
3 shy, funny 4 talkative, modest

Answer Keys Winters For Murray Solutions:

Murray, How to Write a Thesis 5e Rowena Murray, 2025-01-27 I have been drawing upon Rowena's work and this book specifically for many years now both in my own thesis writing as well as with the students I now support. This is a fantastic and most welcome resource as the new chapters on AI and neurodiversity as well as further developments and resources on other sections bring it right up to date. Not only is it a very informative and useful resource, it also provides lots of excellent tasks and tools to employ that are a significant benefit to the writing processes at this level. Joseph Allison, Lecturer in Clinical Education and Visiting Specialist, Plymouth Peninsula Medical School, UK. A must read for students and supervisors alike. This book has become a brilliant companion to navigating the complexities of academic writing. Writing my own thesis often felt like climbing a mountain, but Rowena's book became my map. Packed with practical advice, support, and confidence-building strategies, it helped me reach the summit. Michelle Smith, Lecturer in Sport and Exercise Psychology, University of Stirling, UK. The first edition of How to Write a Thesis was essential in my own PhD journey, providing a comprehensive oversight of thesis requirements that demystified the complex process of academic writing. Twenty years later, the latest iteration of the book remains vital reading. A must-buy book for PhD students. Martin A. Sharp, Director of Postgraduate Research, Edinburgh Napier University, UK. This fully updated edition of the classic guide to thesis writing will help you to write your thesis and make the most of the experience. It will also be useful for supervisors who want to help students develop their writing skills and strategies. This book breaks the writing of a thesis down into manageable tasks, offering routines for productive writing and drawing on research in different fields to help you discover the strategies that work best for you. Arguing that social writing activities such as writing retreats are key to getting started and staying motivated, this book will equip you to write regularly, maintain your confidence as you write and revise, respond to feedback, and create a community of writers as you go. New to this edition: 1. Brand new content on neurodiversity and wellbeing 2. How to write for different audiences and purposes 3. How to write about research impact 4. How to tackle the last phase of your thesis. Rowena Murray is former Professor in Education at the University of the West of Scotland and Honorary Visiting Scholar at Liverpool University Management School. She is an Independent Scholar, Adjunct Professor at Strathclyde Business School, Visiting Senior Research Fellow at the University of Leeds, and Principal Fellow of the UK Higher Education Academy. She works freelance for universities across the UK and in other countries.
