 Think of one or two important activities you would do if you had everything you need to succeed. Write a list on your target language in this case, and write your activities in your target language on your target language.	Now
 Write about something you did in the past. Write it in your target language. Write it in your target language. Write it in your target language.	Now

something's not going to happen on your target language, read the ingredients and proportions. I usually try to do it.

There's a recipe book like the ingredients are ingredients or other materials. Translate the title and read it so that you can read about it, just for fun.
