There is a certain, often, heated protest against the use of the term "cognitive" in the title of the paper. The protest is based on the fact that the term "cognitive" is used in a very broad sense, and that it is not clear what it means in this context. The author responds to this protest by stating that the term "cognitive" is used in a very broad sense, and that it is not clear what it means in this context. The author also states that the term "cognitive" is used in a very broad sense, and that it is not clear what it means in this context.
