Buddhist Law in Burma D. Christian Lammerts,2018-08-31 Burma and neighboring areas of Southeast Asia comprise the only region of the world to have developed a written corpus of Buddhist law claiming jurisdiction over all members of society Yet in contrast with the extensive scholarship on Islamic and Hindu law this tradition of Buddhist law has been largely overlooked In fact it is commonplace to read that Buddhism gave rise to no law aside from the vinaya or monastic law In Buddhist Law in Burma D Christian Lammerts upends this misperception and provides an intellectual and literary history of the dynamic jurisprudence of the dhammasattha legal genre between the thirteenth and nineteenth centuries Based on a critical study of hundreds of little known surviving dhammasattha and related manuscripts Buddhist Law in Burma demonstrates the centrality of law as a crucial discipline of Buddhist knowledge in precolonial Southeast Asia Composed by lay and monastic jurists in prose and verse in Pali Burmese and other regional vernaculars dhammasattha were intended for use by judges to guide the adjudication of legal disputes Lammerts argues that there were multiple sometimes contentious modes of reckoning Buddhist jurisprudence and legal authority in the region and assesses these in the context of local cultural textual and ritual practices Over time the foundational jurisprudence of the genre underwent considerable reformulation in light of arguments raised by its critics bibliographers and historians resulting in a reorientation from a cosmological to a more positivist conception of Buddhist law and legislation that had far reaching implications for innovative forms of dhammasattha related discourse on the eve of British colonialism Buddhist Law in Burma shows how despite such textual and theoretical transformations late precolonial Burmese jurists continued to promote and justify the dhammasattha genre and the role of law generally in Buddhism as a vital aspect of the ongoing effort to protect and preserve the s sanna of Gotama Buddha The book will be of value to students and scholars interested in the rich legal intellectual and cultural histories of Buddhism in Burma and Southeast Asia or in the historical intersections of law and Buddhism El-Hi Textbooks in Print, 1984 Guide to Reference in Medicine and Health Denise Beaubien Bennett, Christa Modscheidler, 2014-04-26

Kant's Conception of Pedagogy G. Felicitas Munzel, 2012-08-31 Although Kant was involved in the education debates of his time it is widely held that in his mature philosophical writings he remained silent on the subject In her groundbreaking Kant's Conception of Pedagogy G Felicitas Munzel finds extant in Kant's writings the so called missing critical treatise on education It appears in the Doctrines of Method with which he concludes each of his major works In it Kant identifies the fundamental principles for the cultivation of reason's judgment when it comes to cognition beauty nature and the exercise of morality while subject to the passions and inclinations that characterize the human experience From her analysis Munzel extrapolates principles for a cosmopolitan education that parallels the structure of Kant's republican constitution for perpetual peace With the formal principles in place the argument concludes with a query of the material principles that would fulfill the formal conditions required for an education for freedom The Doctrine of the Holy Spirit Yacob

Godebo, 2025-07-03 The Scriptures teach the church that in biblical times the coming of the Holy Spirit equally entailed objective gift of divine reality and subjective experience of his presence gifts and works There was objective pouring out and imparting of the Holy Spirit from the divine side and subjective experiential demonstration from the receivers side which resulted from the gifts endowed and power imparted along with the Holy Spirit Having given them either verbally uttered or visibly performed gifts the Holy Spirit then moved believers towards practical demonstration through subjective experience Believers subjective experience took place only as a result of the objective gift of the Holy Spirit and the resulting endowment and empowerment Thus in the objective content of his manifestation the Holy Spirit is the objective gift of God to indwell his people In the subjective content of his manifestation the Holy Spirit endows people with audibly uttered or visibly performed gifts The subjective experience of the Holy Spirit's presence therefore is an original theological input from God just like the objective impartation of the Holy Spirit Practitioners were just objects of divine purpose and their subjective experience was divine provided and divine initiated genuine experience beyond their consciousness and calculation Reception of the Holy Spirit therefore means equally an experience of his presence gifts power and works in the church and in with and through believers from Hosanna to Maranatha LSAT Prep Plus 2024: Strategies for Every Section +
