

Tone Worksheet 2 | Answer Key

1. Suggested Answer: This poem is about the speaker hoping for a strong wind to blow through on a very hot day.
2. Suggested Answer: The speaker's tone is dramatic and exaggerated. I believe this because he says that the air is so thick that fruit cannot drop, and that the thick air is responsible for the curved and rounded shapes of fruits. These are gross exaggerations as to the effects of the heat.
3. Suggested Answer: This poem is about someone who wishes that she could just forget all of her regrets and mistakes.
4. Suggested Answer: The speaker's tone is regretful. I believe this because of lines like the following: "Where all our mistakes and all our heartaches [...] / Could be dropped, like a ragged old coat [...] / And never put on again." She has a lot of feelings of guilt and regret. She wishes that she could just let go of these feelings, but she can't. They haunt her.
5. Suggested Answer: This poem is about a person who is expressing their amazement at the miracle of life.
6. Suggested Answer: The speaker's tone is full of wonder and amazement. I believe this because he says, "I see men walking, and I always feel: / 'Earth! How have you done this? What can you be?'" He is talking about a pretty normal site, seeing someone walking, but he compares it to a lump of dirt rising, speaking, and loving. In other words he is marveling at life itself.
7. Suggested Answer: This poem is about how the speaker enjoys riding to town on a day when there is not a lot of work to do.
8. Suggested Answer: The speaker's tone is peaceful, happy, content, or relaxed. I believe this because of lines like, "There's never a care may live in the air / That is filled with the breath of our glee." This shows that the speaker is relaxed and happy when he takes these trips to town.
