

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space programs and rockets?	That U.S. support them economically (training, fuel, etc.)	Not really.
2. Would anyone benefit from the rockets and satellites they could build?	They would certainly produce satellites that were better. They could improve delivery of aid.	They might develop better in case of emergencies, but they didn't know anyone thought planned attack was needed at all. (Instead, they'd be ready for surprise.)
3. Would anyone challenge either side?	Not really.	Others might be tempted to join, but not immediately and not necessarily.
4. Would what the Americans plan could change American society?	Yes, the government could be stronger. There'd be a common enemy.	Yes, Americans could see improved life, could not take as much notice of the Soviets.

2. Suppose the agreement simply to stop building new weapons.

What effects would that have?

It might be that the technology would be lost.

It would be easier for the government to be attacked if they wanted.

It would be easier for the government to be attacked if they wanted.
