The Macroeconomics of Scaling-up Aid International Working Group of Sovereign Wealth Funds, International Monetary Fund. African Dept., 2008-09-19 In September 2007 the UN Secretary General launched the Millennium Development Goals MDG Africa Steering and Working Groups The Steering Group brings together the leaders of multilateral institutions to identify practical steps needed for Africa to achieve the MDGs The Managing Director of the IMF is a member of the Steering Group The Working Group supports the Steering Group and is comprised of thematic groups in education agriculture health infrastructure and trade facilitation statistics aid predictability and MDG operationalization at the country level The following three notes assess the macroeconomic implications of the spending of scaled up aid to Benin Niger and Togo in line with that promised by the G 8 at Gleneagles Scotland in 2005 The Macroeconomics of Managing Increased Aid Inflows -

Experiences of Low-Income Countries and Policy Implications International Monetary Fund. Policy Development and Review Dept., International Monetary Fund. Strategy, Policy, & Review Department, 2005-08-08 Investigates the macroeconomic challenges for low income countries created by a surge in aid inflows It develops an analytical framework for examining possible policy responses to increased aid and then applies this framework to the experience of five relatively well governed countries that experienced a recent surge in aid inflows Ethiopia Ghana Mozambique Tanzania and Uganda Each country's policies were supported by a PRGF arrangement during most of the period under review The IMF and Aid to

Sub-Saharan Africa International Monetary Fund. Independent Evaluation Office, 2007-04-13 This independent evaluation of the IMF's role and performance in the determination and use of aid to low income countries in sub Saharan Africa is presented at a ground level view Country performance has improved in many sub Saharan Africa countries over the period and the report details the role of the IMF's programs as well as perceptions of that role The report is an important contribution to following through on the IMF's commitment to its Poverty Reduction Strategy and makes three main recommendations for improving the coherence actual and perceived of the IMF's policies and actions relating to aid to sub Saharan Africa going forward Working Together to Make Aid More Effective Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. International Development Committee, 2008 Working together to make aid more Effective Ninth report of session 2007 08 Vol 2 Oral and written Evidence Foreign Aid in Africa Jerker Carlsson, Gloria Somolekae, Nicolas Van de

Walle, 1997 This volume reports on the findings of an international research project on aid effectiveness in Africa Aid for Trade: Global and Regional Perspectives Philippe Lombaerde, Lakshmi Puri, 2009-02-03 Aid for Trade AfT has become a major item on the international trade and development discourse This is to a large extent in response to concerns expressed by developing countries and economies in transition with regard to their capacities to implement trade agreements especially WTO agreements and undertake necessary adjustments to increase net development gains from emerging trade opportunities In this World Report major UN agencies active in development cooperation and longstanding providers of trade related technical assistance and capacity building discuss ways to sustain the momentum towards the operationalization and implementation of the AfT initiative and the supportive role to be played by the UN system This is consistent with UN's role in promoting development and helping to achieve poverty reduction as committed in the Millennium Declaration and the 2005 World Summit Outcome The Report should be of particular interest to government officials officials of regional organizations representatives of the private sector dealing with trade agreements and negotiations civil society and academia

Supachai Panitchpakdi Secretary General of UNCTAD Lakshmi Puri is Acting Deputy Secretary General and Director of the Division on International Trade and Services and Commodities at UNCTAD in Geneva Philippe De Lombaerde is Associate Director of United Nations University UNU CRIS in Bruges In collaboration with UNCTAD ECA ECLAC ESCAP ESCWA UNECE UNIDO UNDP UNEP

The Macroeconomics of Scaling Up Aid Mr. Andrew Berg, International Monetary Fund, 2007-03-23 This study analyzes key issues associated with large increases in aid including absorptive capacity Dutch disease and inflation The authors develop a framework that emphasizes the different roles of monetary and fiscal policy and apply it to the recent experience of five countries Ethiopia Ghana Mozambique Tanzania and Uganda These countries have often found it difficult to coordinate monetary and fiscal policy in the face of conflicting objectives notably to spend the aid money on domestic goods and to avoid excessive exchange rate appreciation

Postconflict Economics in Sub-Saharan Africa, Lessons from the Democratic Republic of the Congo Mr. Jean A. P. Clément, 2005-02-07 The Democratic Republic of the Congo is making significant strides on both the political and economic fronts to extricate itself from one of the bloodiest wars in African history This remarkable turnaround offers other countries and the international community valuable lessons in preventing conflict and in coping with postconflict recovery This book also provides a summary of the most recent research on conflict an analysis of the causes of conflicts in Africa and an outline of their key economic characteristics

Budget Support as More Effective Aid? Stefan Koeberle, Zoran Stavreski, Jan Walliser, 2006-01-01 Budget support has become an increasingly important instrument in the context of a partnership based approach to development assistance Compared to traditional modes of aid delivery it promises greater country ownership reduced transaction costs better donor coordination scaling up of poverty reduction and potentially greater development effectiveness This book presents a timely and valuable review of key concepts issues experiences and emerging lessons relevant to budget support It provides an overview of principal characteristics expectations and concerns related to budget support key design and implementation issues as well as some practical experiences The contributors include government representatives from developing countries leading academic scholars bilateral development agencies and development practitioners from international financial institutions including the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund They present a wide range of views on key issues such as the choice of instruments alignment of budget support with country programs predictability and coordination and conditionality The authors draw their insightful analysis on the contemporary research and evaluation work as well as the broad practical experience with budget support This book will be of great interest to practitioners in aid recipient countries and international financial institutions bilateral agencies and civil organizations involved in budget support Uganda's Economic Reforms Florence Kuteesa,2010 This book represents the first consolidated account of the economic reforms undertaken by the Uganda government and their impact on growth and poverty reduction and includes contributions from those directly involved in the implementation of those reforms
