Abidde,2023-12-15 Governance security and development are three critical components of a dialectical nexus that is both dominant and determinant for any objective and fruitful quest for the understanding of the trajectory of a country a region or in the case of Africa a continent from a colonial past to a neocolonial and meta colonial present and toward a future of strategic optimal independence and self reliance That colonial past and the ensuing neocolonial and meta colonial present have made these critical components and the dialectical nexus that they form particularly challenging for the African continent For this reason Issues of Governance Security and Development in Contemporary Africa offers an in depth interdisciplinary analysis of the challenges that contemporary Africa faces within these critical areas as well as the resources and prospects that the continent possesses and can leverage to overcome the said challenges Using case studies involving a range of countries across the continent Mohamed Saliou Camara Alem Hailu and Sabella O Abidde argue that Africa needs to decolonize the terms of reference that guide its nation building statecraft and national development agenda in ways that will facilitate the establishment of viable systems of governance and security and the promotion of genuine development

Kenyan Public Universities in the Age of Internationalization Iddah Aoko Otieno,2018-06-20 This book presents a comprehensive institutional level analysis of a single public institution of higher education in the Republic of Kenya using the case study method of investigation It is the first case study to use both qualitative and quantitative research methodology to illuminate the experiences of Kenyan public universities with internationalization post independence Focusing on Kenya s oldest national public university the University of Nairobi s experimentation with internationalization Kenyan Public Universities in the Age of Internationalization is a first in the East African region The book argues that attempts by institutions of higher education in Africa to engage in internationalization with the much more older and well established IHEs in the developed world has perpetuated the colonial legacy that has relegated these institutions to the position of the Other in the new international order Several policy implications are offered on what it means to participate in internationalization from a marginal peripheral position The conventional assumption that political independence would bring to most African countries and by extension their national public universities a period of freedom from political economic and cultural subjugation and exploitation by the more powerful world nations has proved elusive This book is intended for a broad audience in the field of Comparative International Education The mixed research methods used in this book will certainly appeal to instructors students and general readers interested in understanding the experiences of historically marginalized developing World institutions of higher education with internationalization
